

RCW 50A.30.040 Employee costs. An employer may assume all or a greater part of the cost of the voluntary plan than required under the state program. An employer may deduct from the wages of an employee covered by the voluntary plan, for the purpose of providing the benefits specified in this title, an amount not in excess of that which would be required if the employee was not covered by the plan. [2019 c 13 § 59; 2017 3rd sp.s. c 5 § 17. Formerly RCW 50A.04.625.]