RCW 46.04.174 Facial recognition matching system. "Facial recognition matching system" means a system that compares the biometric template derived from an image of an applicant or holder of a driver's license, permit, or identicard with the biometric templates derived from the images in the department's negative file. [2012 c 80 s 3.]