

WAC 388-101-3080 The department may deny—Application. Under WAC 388-101-3090, the department is required to deny an application for initial certification or change of ownership under certain circumstances. The department may also deny an application if any person named in the application has:

(1) Shown a lack of the understanding, character, ability, or emotional stability that is necessary to meet the identified needs of vulnerable adults;

(2) Had a contract terminated or a certification or license revoked or denied by the department, or has been subjected to department enforcement actions;

(3) Had an out-of-state contract or license involving the provision of services to children or vulnerable adults terminated, revoked or denied or has been the subject of an enforcement action related to the out-of-state contract or license;

(4) Obtained or attempted to obtain a license or certification by fraudulent means or misrepresentation;

(5) Relinquished or been denied a license or license renewal to operate a home or facility that was licensed for the care of children or vulnerable adults;

(6) Refused to permit authorized department representatives to interview clients or to have access to client records;

(7) Been convicted of a drug-related conviction within the past five years without evidence of rehabilitation, unless denial is required under WAC 388-101-3090; or

(8) Been convicted of an alcohol-related conviction within the past five years without evidence of rehabilitation; or

(9) Been convicted of any felony that the department determines is reasonably related to the competency of the person to be involved in the ownership or operation of the service provider.
