WAC 137-48-040 Restriction of incoming and/or outgoing mail.

(1) Incoming mail to individuals may be disapproved for receipt for any one of the following reasons:

(a) The mail threatens illegal activity including, but not limited to, threats of physical harm, blackmail or extortion.

(b) The mail threatens the safety and security of the institution including, but not limited to, mail concerning sending contraband escape plans, security devices, or mail that is in a code, a foreign language that cannot be interpreted, does not contain a return address, contains gang symbols, plans for activities in violation of institutional rules or contains information which, if communicated, would create a risk of violence and/or physical harm.

(c) The mail is susceptible to the introduction of contraband including, but not limited to, altered publications, mail with unknown substances on or in it, mail purported to be legal mail that is general correspondence, cash or checks, postage stamps, stickers, photos wherein the nonphoto side is or can be separated, publications not mailed directly from vendor, items not ordered and approved through institution channels, greeting cards that are padded, laminated/layered or musical.

(d) Any mail or publication that is deemed to be a threat to legitimate penological objectives including, but not limited to, sexually explicit materials.

(e) The mail is correspondence between individuals that has not been approved by the superintendent in compliance with department policy.

(f) The mail contains items identified by the department secretary or designee as not authorized including, but not limited to, multiple copies of documents, mailings soliciting or offering games of chance, clippings from books or magazines.

(g) The mail is from an individual with whom contact is restricted in compliance with the judgment and sentence, a no contact order or department policy.

(2) Outgoing mail from individuals of institutions may be disapproved for mailing for any of the following reasons:

(e) The outside of the mail (envelope or package) does not contain a return address as defined in WAC 137-48-020.

(3) No mail is to be restricted for the reason that it appeals to a particular ethnic, racial, or religious group, or that it contains critical opinions of departmental policy or departmental employees, unless the mail is also judged to be a threat to legitimate penological objectives.

(4) In addition to those reasons cited in this section, packages sent either to or from an individual are subject to the following restrictions:

(a) An individual may receive one gift package not to exceed fifteen pounds in weight on a quarterly basis. Quarterly periods shall consist of December through February, March through May, June through August, and September through November. The superintendent may allow exceptions from the one gift package limitation and weight limitation provided that appropriate contraband controls are maintained.

(b) The contents of the quarterly package shall be restricted to those items that are otherwise not available to the individual through the institutional store or other purchasing outlet provided by the institution. A replacement package may be sent during the same quarter for damaged packages that are returned to the sender by the individual.
