

WAC 388-826-0200 What happens if a licensed provider terminates a client's out-of-home placement? If a licensed provider terminates a client's out-of-home placement:

(1) The child must return to the parent or legal guardian's care unless:

(a) Taken into custody under RCW 13.34.050 or 26.44.050;

(b) Placed in shelter care under RCW 13.34.060; or

(c) Placed in foster care under RCW 13.34.130;

(2) The provider must:

(a) Notify the client's parent or legal guardian, the department, and the client's school in writing at least thirty days before the termination; and

(b) Develop a transition plan; and

(3) The department assesses the client's health and welfare needs, and may authorize supports to the family while a new out-of-home placement is identified.
