

WAC 434-112-023 Preclearance. Records will only be precleared in person at the front counter. The filing fee is ten dollars plus the immediate service fee of fifty dollars. If immediate service is not required, the record may be left for processing with other records received that day and the precleared record will be returned by mail or electronically within five business days. If grounds for rejection are found, a notice of the grounds will be included with the returned record.
