

WAC 516-21-060 Conduct that harms or threatens health or safety.

Conduct that harms, attempts to harm, or threatens the health or safety of any member of the Western community by any means (e.g., in person, through a third party, online), or others on university property or in connection with any official university function, is a violation of the code. This includes, but is not limited to:

- (1) Physical assault.
- (2) Any threat, stated or implied, to the health, safety or well-being of others.
- (3) Any contact or communication of a threatening nature that intimidates, harasses, and would cause a reasonable person to fear for their safety or well-being.
- (4) Intoxication or impairment through the use of alcohol or other substances to the point that a student is unable to exercise care for their own safety or well-being.
- (5) Sexual violence including sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking or any other type of sexual misconduct or gender-based discrimination.
