- WAC 257-10-060 What is the purpose of the referral registry? The referral registry was designed to increase consumer/employer choice while providing assistance in finding individual providers and prospective individual providers. In addition, the referral registry:
- (1) Takes into account the consumer/employer needs and preferences when identifying potential individual providers;
- (2) Provides for reasonable standards of accountability for individual providers and prospective individual providers listed through the registry;
- (3) Is voluntary for individual providers and prospective individual providers and consumers/employers;
- (4) Promotes job opportunities for individual providers and prospective individual providers;
- (5) Provides access to the database for consumer/employers who want to query a referral independently; and
- (6) Increases a consumer/employer's choice of individual providers and prospective individual providers via an established pool of available individual providers and prospective individual providers on the registry.
