- WAC 284-17-516 Home self-study—Candidate, course materials and approved providers. (1) A candidate for an insurance producer license examination that undertakes home self-study in lieu of attending a lecture class or proctored self-study, must contact an approved prelicensing insurance education provider to purchase the required course materials.
- (2) A list of approved prelicensing insurance education providers is available on the commissioner's website at www.insurance.wa.gov.
- (3) The candidate must complete all prelicensing insurance education requirements set forth in WAC 284-17-510.
- (4) After completion of the program of home self-study, the petitioner must provide verification of completion of each course to the prelicensing insurance education provider before the provider can issue a certificate of completion. A certificate of completion is required before the candidate will be admitted to the insurance licensing examination.
- (5) The prelicensing insurance education provider must keep accurate purchase and completion rosters of all students participating in home self-study.
- (6) "Home self-study" means a form of study using course materials approved by the commissioner and completed away from an insurance school and a course other than a lecture or classroom course. It includes approved internet-based online courses accessed from a home computer. The course materials may include textbooks, CDs or reading material accessed online from the insurance school's website.
