WAC 388-76-10616 Resident rights—Transfer and discharge notice.

- (1) Before a home transfers or discharges a resident, the home must give the resident and the resident's representative a written thirty day notification informing them of the transfer or discharge. The home must also make a reasonable effort to notify, if known, any interested family member. The written notification must be in a language and manner the resident understands and include the following:
 - (a) The reason for transfer or discharge;
 - (b) The effective date of transfer or discharge;
- (c) The location where the resident is transferred or discharged if known at the time of the thirty-day discharge notice;
- (d) The name, address, and telephone number of the state long-term care ombuds;
- (e) For residents with developmental disabilities, the mailing address and telephone number of the agency responsible for the protection and advocacy of individuals with a developmental disability; and
- (f) For residents with mental illness, the mailing address and telephone number of the agency responsible for the protection and advocacy of individuals with mental illness.
- (2) The home may make the notice as soon as practicable before transfer or discharge when:
- (a) The safety and health of the individuals in the home would be endangered;
- (b) An immediate transfer or discharge is required by the resident's urgent medical needs; or
- (c) The resident has been absent from the home for thirty or more days.
- (3) A copy of the written notification must be in the resident's records.
