- WAC 388-450-0138 Does the department allocate income of an ineligible spouse to a housing and essential needs (HEN) referral recipient? This section applies to referrals to the housing and essential needs (HEN) program.
- (1) When a HEN referral recipient is married and lives with their nonapplying spouse, the following income is considered available to the client:
- (a) The remainder of the recipient's wages, retirement benefits and other income after reducing the total income by:
- (i) The HEN referral work incentive deduction, as specified in WAC 388-450-0178; and
- (ii) The amount of current and/or back child support that the recipient is paying each month under a court or administrative order. If the monthly child support payment is greater than the department's standard of need, income is instead reduced by the department's standard of need.
- (b) The remainder of the nonapplying spouse's wages, retirement benefits and other income after reducing the total income by:
- (i) An amount not to exceed the department's standard of need for court ordered or administratively ordered current or back child support for legal dependents; and
- (ii) The HEN referral income limit amount as specified under WAC 388-478-0090 which includes ineligible assistance unit members.
 - (c) One-half of all other community income.
