- WAC 388-829C-275 When must a client have an individual financial plan and what components must be included? (1) The companion home provider must develop and implement an individual financial plan if:
- (a) The client's person-centered service plan identifies that the client needs support to manage their funds; and
- (b) The companion home provider manages any portion of the client's funds.
- (2) The client's individual financial plan must be accurate and current, and:
- (a) List all of the client's income sources, such as wages, Social Security benefits, supplemental security disability income, retirement income, and the projected monthly amount of the income;
- (b) Identify all known client accounts and who manages each account, such as a checking account, savings account, and cash account;
- (c) Include a budget and describe how the client's funds will be spent during a typical month;
- (d) Identify all known client assets and who manages each asset, such as a burial plan, retirement funds, stocks, trusts, and vehicles; and
- (e) Include a plan for maintaining resources under WAC 182-513-1350.
- (3) The companion home provider must review the individual financial plan with the client and the client's legal representative if the client has one:
 - (a) At least every twelve months; and
- (b) If the client's income, expenses, or assets change, or if there is a change in who manages an asset.
- (4) The provider, the client, and the client's legal representative if the client has one, must sign the individual financial plan when it is developed and each time it is revised.
- (5) Every twelve months, or more often if the plan has been revised, the companion home provider must provide a copy of the individual financial plan to the:
 - (a) Client;
 - (b) Client's legal representative if the client has one; and
 - (c) Client's case manager.
