- WAC 388-835-0380 What happens to resident funds when a change of ownership occurs? (1) When a facility is sold or some other transfer of ownership takes place, the former provider must provide the new provider with a written accounting, based upon generally accepted auditing standards, of all resident funds being transferred. The former provider must also obtain a written receipt for the funds from the new provider.
- (2) Before any transfer of ownership occurs, the facility must give each resident, or their representative, a written accounting of any personal funds held by the facility.
- (3) If there is disagreement regarding the accounting offered by the former provider, the resident retains all rights and remedies provided under state law.
