

WAC 446-75-030 Purposes of DNA identification. DNA identification systems as authorized by chapter 43.43 RCW will be used only for three purposes:

(1) Identification of possible suspects in criminal investigations;

(2) Retention of convicted offender DNA identification as required by RCW 43.43.754; and

(3) Identification of human remains or missing persons. Nothing in this section prohibits the submission of results derived from the biological samples to the Federal Bureau of Investigation combined DNA index system.
