WAC 110-90-0100 How does a youth demonstrate the inability to participate in extended foster care (EFC) activities due to a documented medical condition?

(1) To demonstrate the inability to participate in EFC activities due to a documented medical condition defined in WAC 110-90-0090, a youth must notify the caseworker of the medical condition and provide to the department of children, youth, and families written documentation or consent to obtain documentation from a licensed health care provider. The documentation of the medical condition must describe how the medical condition prevents the youth, either temporarily or permanently, from:

(a) Completing a high school diploma or high school equivalency certificate;

(b) Completing a post-secondary academic or vocational program;

(c) Participating in a program or activity designed to promote employment or remove barriers to employment; or

(d) Being employed for eighty hours or more per month.

(2) If a medical condition prevents a youth from notifying the caseworker or obtaining or providing documentation of the medical condition, the youth must notify the caseworker as soon as they are reasonably able.

(3) If the youth's medical condition temporarily prevents them from engaging in EFC activities, the youth will provide the caseworker with updated documentation from the licensed health care provider regarding the youth's ability to engage in EFC activities during the monthly health and safety visit.

(4) The youth may give the department of children, youth, and families consent to contact the licensed health care provider directly to determine the impact of the youth's documented medical condition or their ability to engage in EFC activities.

WAC 110-90-0150 What are DCYF's responsibilities to a youth who is participating in EFC? DCYF is required to have placement and care authority over the youth and provide foster care services, including transition planning and independent living services, medical assistance through medicaid, and case management. Case management includes findings or approving a foster care placement for the youth, convening family meetings, developing, revising, and monitoring implementation of any case plan or court report, coordinating and monitoring services needed by the youth, caseworker visits, and court-related duties, including preparing court reports, attending judicial and permanency hearings, and ensuring that the youth is progressing toward independence within state and federal mandates. DCYF has responsibility to inform the court of the status of the child (including health, safety, welfare, education status, and continuing eligibility for extended foster care program). DCYF's placement and care authority over a youth receiving EFC services is solely for the purpose of providing services and does not create a legal responsibility for the actions of the youth receiving EFC services.

WAC 110-90-0160 How does DCYF determine a youth's continuing eligibility for the EFC program? To determine a youth's continuing eligibility for the EFC program, prior to every court review hearing DCYF will determine if the youth continues to:

- (1) Agree to participate in the EFC program;
- (2) Meet the eligibility criteria in WAC 110-90-0040 (1)(a) through (f);
- (3) Reside in an approved placement; and
- (4) Comply with the youth's responsibilities in WAC 110-90-0190.
