- WAC 112-10-070 Implementation of duties. OFCO fulfills its duties through the following activities:
 - (1) Information and referral;
 - (2) Interventions;
 - (3) Systemic investigations;
 - (4) Administrative investigations;
 - (5) Complaint tracking and referral; and
 - (6) An annual report.
 - (a) Information and referral.
- (i) OFCO responds to requests for information that relates to the rights and responsibilities of a family or child who is receiving family and children's services, and the procedures for providing such services, by providing information directly to the inquiring individual.
- (ii) OFCO may respond to requests for information pertaining to legal rights, responsibilities and procedures, but may not provide legal advice.
- (iii) OFCO responds to requests for other information by referring the inquiring individual to the appropriate agency.
 - (b) Interventions.
- (i) OFCO may act to prevent or mitigate harm to a child or parent resulting from an administrative act.
- (ii) OFCO interventions may be initiated when, upon investigation, the ombudsman determines that an administrative act is harming or has placed at risk of harm a particular child or parent. OFCO may not intervene until the ombudsman has made such a determination.
- (iii) OFCO's investigations may be initiated upon receipt of a complaint or upon its own initiative.
- (iv) OFCO may investigate only those administrative acts that meet the definition established in WAC $112-10-020\,(1)$; provided that OFCO may conduct an investigation to determine whether an alleged administrative act meets the aforementioned definition.
- (v) OFCO may decline a request to intervene on behalf of a particular child or parent when, upon investigation, the ombudsman determines that the complaint does not meet the criteria or priorities specified in law, rule, or OFCO policy.
- (vi) OFCO interventions include, but are not limited to, informal contacts with front-line workers and supervisors to express concerns, provide information, and explore other possible responses by the agency or facility. OFCO may also recommend a particular course of action to supervisors, managers, and administrators.
 - (c) Systemic investigations.
- (i) OFCO may investigate potentially chronic and/or system-wide administrative acts that appear to adversely affect children and families. A systemic investigation is intended to produce information that will enable OFCO to identify systemic issues and recommend appropriate changes in law, policy, procedure, or practice.
- (ii) OFCO systemic investigations may be initiated when, upon preliminary investigation, the ombudsman determines that a chronic and/or system-wide administrative practice appears to exist that adversely affects children and/or their parents. OFCO may not conduct a systemic investigation unless the ombudsman has made such a determination.
- (iii) A preliminary investigation may be initiated upon receipt of a complaint requesting such an investigation or upon the ombudsman's own initiative.

- (iv) OFCO may investigate only those chronic and/or system-wide administrative acts that meet the definition in WAC 112-10-020(1), and only those that the ombudsman determines are consistent with the criteria and priorities specified in law, rule, and OFCO policy.
- (v) OFCO may decline a request to conduct a systemic investigation if the ombudsman determines that the request is not consistent with the criteria or priorities specified in law, rule, or OFCO policy.
- (vi) The findings and recommendations resulting from a systemic investigation shall be published in a report to the governor, the committee, and the affected agency or facility.
 - (d) Administrative investigations.
- (i) OFCO may investigate an administrative act that appears to have been seriously harmful to a child or family and:
 - (A) A clear violation of law, policy, or procedure; or
- (B) Clearly unreasonable or inappropriate under the circumstances. An administrative investigation is intended to produce information that will enable OFCO to assess compliance with law, policy, or procedure, and/or the need for new or modified laws, policies, or procedures.
- (ii) OFCO administrative investigations may be initiated when, upon preliminary investigation, the ombudsman determines that an administrative act appears to have been harmful to a child or parent, and is:
 - (A) A clear violation of law, policy, or procedure; or
- (B) Clearly unreasonable or inappropriate under the circumstances. OFCO may not conduct an administrative investigation unless the ombudsman has made such a determination.
- (iii) A preliminary investigation may be initiated upon receipt of a complaint requesting an investigation or upon the ombudsman's own initiative.
- (iv) OFCO may investigate only those administrative acts that meet the definition in WAC $112-10-020\,(1)$ and only those that the ombudsman determines are consistent with the criteria and priorities specified in law, rule, and OFCO policy.
- (v) OFCO may decline a request to conduct an administrative investigation if the ombudsman determines that the request is not consistent with the criteria or priorities specified in law, rule, or OFCO policy.
- (vi) The findings and recommendations resulting from an administrative investigation shall be published in a report to the governor, the committee, and the affected agency or facility.
 - (e) Complaint tracking and referral.
- (i) OFCO shall enter each complaint it receives in an automated database for the purpose of identifying and reporting complaint trends and patterns.
- (ii) OFCO responds to complaints that are not within its jurisdiction, priorities, or resources, by referring the complainant to the governor's office, the legislative hot line, and/or the appropriate agency.
- (iii) With regard to complaints that are not within OFCO's jurisdiction, but that raise child health and safety concerns, OFCO may forward the concern directly to the appropriate agency for response.
 - (7) Annual report. OFCO shall, at a minimum, report annually on:
 - (a) The number and types of complaints received by OFCO;
- (b) OFCO's response to requests for interventions and investigations;

- (c) The number and type of OFCO-initiated interventions and investigations, and
 - (d) The results of OFCO's interventions and investigations.
