- WAC 246-924-483 How to obtain a temporary practice permit while the national background check is completed. Fingerprint-based national background checks may cause a delay in licensing. Individuals who satisfy all other licensing requirements and qualifications may receive a temporary practice permit while the national background check is completed.
- (1) A temporary practice permit may be issued to an applicant who:
- (a) Holds an unrestricted, active license to practice psychology in another state that has substantially equivalent licensing standards to those in Washington state;
- (b) Is not subject to denial of a license or issuance of a conditional or restricted license; and
  - (c) Does not have a criminal record in Washington state.
- (2) A temporary practice permit grants the individual the full scope of practice of psychology.
- (3) A temporary practice permit will not be renewed, reissued, or extended. A temporary practice permit expires when any one of the following occurs:
  - (a) The license is granted;
- (b) A notice of decision on application is mailed to the applicant, unless the notice of decision on the application specifically extends the duration of the temporary practice permit; or
- (c) Two hundred ten days after the temporary practice permit is issued.
  - (4) To receive a temporary practice permit, the applicant must:
- (a) Submit the necessary application, fee(s), and documentation for the license.
- (b) Meet all requirements and qualifications for the license, except the results from a fingerprint-based national background check, if required.
- (c) Provide verification of having an active unrestricted license to practice psychology from another state that has substantially equivalent licensing standards as Washington state.
- (d) Submit the fingerprint card and a written request for a temporary practice permit when the department notifies the applicant the national background check is required.
