- WAC 296-23-308 Scheduling case progress examinations. (1) Unless a case progress examination is requested by the attending provider, no case progress examination may be scheduled until 120 days have passed since the later of:
 - (a) The department or self-insurer's receipt of the claim; or
- (b) The department or self-insurer's receipt of the last case progress examination report and additional treatment of the condition, if requested, has been authorized.
- (2) Subject to subsection (1) of this section, the department or self-insurer may schedule a case progress examination of an injured worker after:
- (a) Requesting an explanation from the attending provider regarding status of the treatment plan per WAC 296-23-302, definition of case progress examination, or a referral of the injured worker to a consultation with the appropriate specialty(ies) per WAC 296-20-051 within 15 business days of the request; and
 - (b) The attending provider or consultant:
- (i) Did not respond within 15 business days of the department or self-insured employer request or the consultation could not be completed within 90 days;
 - (ii) Omitted requested information;
 - (iii) Did not have further treatment recommendations;
- (iv) Recommended a treatment plan that is not proper and necessary or does not meet the department's medical treatment guidelines; or
- (v) Wrote a report that does not comply with the provisions of WAC 296-20-06101.
