- WAC 388-02-0140 May you waive interpreter services? (1) If you are limited English proficient, you may ask to waive interpreter services.
- (2) You must make your request in writing or through a qualified interpreter on the record.
- (3) The ALJ must determine if your waiver has been knowingly and voluntarily made.
- (4) You may withdraw your waiver at any time before or during the hearing.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.020. WSR 00-18-059, § 388-02-0140, filed 9/1/00, effective 10/2/00.]