WAC 388-310-1700 WorkFirst—Self-employment. (1) What is self-employment?

When you work for yourself and do not have an employer, you are self-employed.

(2) When can I be deferred from job search to pursue self-employment?

- (a) To be deferred from job search for self-employment, you must meet all the conditions below:
- (i) You must be working at least thirty-two hours a week at your business;
- (ii) Your business must generate income for you that is equal to the federal minimum wage times thirty-two hours per week after your business expenses are subtracted.
- (iii) Your case manager will refer you to a local business resource center, and they must approve your self-employment plan;
- (b) If you do not meet all these conditions, you may still be self-employed, but you will also need to participate in job search or other WorkFirst activities.

(3) What self-employment services can I get?

- If you are a mandatory participant and have an approved self-employment plan in your individual responsibility plan, you may get the following self-employment services:
- (a) A referral to community resources for technical assistance with your business plan.
- (b) Small business training courses through local community organizations or technical and community colleges.
- (c) Information on affordable credit, business training and ongoing technical support.

(4) What support services may I receive?

If you have an approved self-employment plan in your individual responsibility plan all support services are available.

(5) Can I get childcare?

Childcare is available if you have an approved self-employment plan in your individual responsibility plan. (See chapter 110-15 WAC for working connections child care program rules.)
