- WAC 388-829A-300 When must DDA deny the client's choice of an alternative living provider? DDA must deny a client's request to have a certain provider and must not enter into a contract with the person when any of the following exist:
- (1) The person is the client's spouse, as required by 42 C.F.R. 441.360(g);
 - (2) The person is the client's natural/step/adoptive parent;
- (3) The person is the client's court-appointed legal representative; or
- (4) DDA has a reasonable, good faith belief that the provider will be unable to meet the client's needs. Examples of a provider's inability to meet the client's needs may include:
 - (a) Evidence of alcohol or drug abuse;
- (b) A reported history of domestic violence, no-contact orders, or criminal conduct (whether or not the conduct is disqualifying under chapter 388-113 WAC);
- (c) A report from the client's health care provider or another knowledgeable person that the requested provider lacks the ability or willingness to provide adequate support;
- (d) Other employment or responsibilities that prevent or interfere with the provision of required services;
- (e) A reported history of mismanagement of client funds or DSHS contract violations; or
- (f) Excessive commuting distance that would make it impractical to provide services as they are needed and outlined in the client's ISP.
