- WAC 16-54-088 Temporary grazing permits. Cattle moving interstate on grazing permits are exempt from a certificate of veterinary inspection and testing requirements.
- (1)(a) Persons desiring to move cattle into Washington state for temporary grazing purposes must complete a temporary grazing application approved by both states. After approval, a permit number will be issued.
- (b) Temporary grazing permits are valid for a period not to exceed six months and are valid only for movement to the destination specified on the permit and return to the location of origin.
- (c) A copy of the approved application must accompany any vehicle transporting cattle into Washington state for temporary grazing purposes.
- (d) Temporary grazing permits will be issued only for cattle entering from states that share common borders with the state of Washington.
- (e) If cattle have been commingled with other herds or additional cattle have been added to the original grazing herd, they must have a certificate of veterinary inspection and entry permit in order to return to Washington.
- (2) Permits are granted based on current disease conditions in both states. The director may specify conditions on the permit to prevent or control disease.
