- WAC 192-150-140 Change in usual work that violates religious or sincere moral beliefs—RCW 50.20.050 (2)(b)(x). (1) For purposes of this section, "usual work" means job duties or conditions:
- (a) Originally agreed upon by you and your employer in your hiring agreement; or
  - (b) Customary for workers in your job classification; or
  - (c) You consistently performed during your base period; or
- (d) Mutually agreed to by you and your employer prior to the employer action changing your job duties.
- (2) The following criteria will be used to determine whether you had good cause for quitting work under this section:
- (a) The change in your usual work must be the result of action taken by your employer;
- (b) The work must require you to violate your religious beliefs or sincere moral convictions; mere disapproval of the employer's method of conducting business is not good cause for leaving work under this section;
- (c) You must notify your employer that the work violates your religion or sincere moral beliefs, unless doing so would be futile;
- (d) The work or activity must directly, rather than indirectly, affect your religious or moral beliefs; and
- (e) The objectionable condition must exist in fact, rather than be a matter of speculation.
- (3) You will not have good cause for quitting work under this section if:
  - (a) You are inconsistent or insincere in your objections;
- (b) The objection is raised as a sham or a means of avoiding work; or
- (c) You knew of the objectionable aspects of the work at the time of hire, or you continued working under the objectionable conditions longer than a reasonably prudent person holding similar beliefs would have continued.
