- WAC 292-130-130 Exemptions. (1) The Public Records Act provides that a number of types of documents are exempt from public inspection and copying. In addition, documents are exempt from disclosure if any "other statute" exempts or prohibits disclosure.
- (2) During the course of an investigation, records generated or collected as a result of the investigation may be exempt from public inspection and copying under RCW 42.56.240.
- (a) The investigation is not considered complete until a case is resolved either by a stipulation and settlement that is signed by all parties; or, when the board enters a final order after a public hearing.
- (b) The following records are not considered part of the investigation file and are releasable upon request:
 - (i) Complaints, upon receipt by the respondent;
 - (ii) The board staff's investigation report;
- (iii) The board's findings of reasonable cause or no reasonable cause; and
 - (iv) Stipulations and settlements, upon receipt by the board.
