AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 98-12-022, filed 5/27/98, effective 6/27/98)

WAC 4-25-540 What are brief adjudicative proceedings? For certain types of decisions, the board has adopted an appeal process authorized by chapter 34.05 RCW which is called a brief adjudicative proceeding. Decisions to which this appeal process will be applied are:

- Denials of initial individual license or certificate applications;
- (● ~~Good character rulings,~~
- ~~Agency ethics rulings, and~~)
- Denials of initial firm license applications and firm license renewals;
- Denials of exam applications; and
- A determination whether a licensee or certificateholder has been certified by a lending agency and reported for nonpayment or default on a federally or state-guaranteed student loan or service conditional scholarship.

To appeal a decision you must submit your request for a brief adjudicative proceeding, in writing, to the board within thirty days after the decision by board staff is posted in the U.S. mail. The residing officer for the brief adjudicative proceedings is the executive director. After consulting with a board member, the executive director renders a decision either upholding or overturning the decision by board staff. This decision, called an order, is mailed to you.

If you (~~do not receive satisfaction from~~) are dissatisfied with the order in the brief adjudicative proceeding, you may appeal to the board's vice-chair. This appeal process is called an administrative review. Your appeal must be received by the board, orally or in writing, within twenty-one days after the brief adjudicative proceedings order is posted in the U.S. mail. The vice-chair considers your appeal and either upholds or overturns the brief adjudicative proceeding (~~decision~~) order. The vice-chair's decision, also called an order, is mailed to you.
