RULES AND REGULATIONS RELATING TO EGG INSPECTION, DEFINING INVOICES AND BILLS OF LADING AND PRESCRIBING INVOICE AND BILL OF LADING REQUIREMENTS.

I, Joe Dwyer, Director of Agriculture of the State of Washington, after public notice and hearing held at Olympia on December 6, 1957, by virtue of authority vested in me under Chapter 69.24, Revised Code of Washington, do hereby promulgate the following rules and regulations:

REGULATION 1. Invoice and Bill of Lading Requirements.

PARAGRAPH 1. Definitions.

(a) "Invoice" means an itemized statement of shell eggs, held, stored, shipped or sent to a purchaser or consignee or dealer, with the quantity, grade, size and weight class annexed.

(b) "Bill of Lading" means a written account or itemized statement of shell eggs shipped or sent to a purchaser, consignee or dealer with the point of origin, point of destination and quantity of shipment annexed.

PARAGRAPH 2. Invoice Requirements.

(a) No person or dealer shall have in his possession for the purpose of sale, shell eggs that have been previously candled, graded and labeled and held in containers or subcontainers without an invoice showing date received together with name and address of shipper: PROVIDED, that each person or dealer shall keep a copy of said invoice on file at his place of business or place of storage for a period of ninety (90) days during which time a copy shall be available for inspection at all reasonable times by the Director.

PARAGRAPH 3. Bill of Lading Requirements.

(a) A bill of lading shall accompany all shell eggs that have not been previously candled and graded that are held in containers or subcontainers when received, shipped, held or stored. A copy of said bill of lading shall be kept by the person in possession and shall be available for inspection by the Director at all reasonable times: PROVIDED, that shell eggs, packed, stored or held at the point of production shall be exempt from this regulation.
