ORDER NO. 886

Effective May 24, 1962

REGULATION GOVERNING PRODUCTION RECORD BRANDS.

I, Joe Dwyer, Director of Agriculture of the State of Washington, by virtue of the authority vested in me under Chapter 16.57 RCW, after due notice as provided under Chapter 34.04 and 42.32, RCW, and a public hearing held in Olympia on April 19, 1962, do hereby adopt Order No. 886, Identification of Livestock Regulations Pertaining to Production Record Brands:

Regulation 1. Cattle for dairy purposes may be identified by branding on any point between the hock and the stifle of the right hind leg by the owner. Any digit or combination of digits may be used.

Regulation 2. Cattle of the beef breeds may be identified by branding high on either the left or the right shoulder by the owner, provided, that the cattle shall also be identified with such owner's registered brand. Any digit or combination of digits may be used, with the exception of the following numbers:

ON CATTLE OF THE BEEF BREEDS

NOT PERMISSIBLE on the right shoulder are 6, 7, 60 and 717;

NOT PERMISSIBLE on the left shoulder are 14, 25 and 77.

Regulations 1 and 2 are being adopted in order that cattle owners may use a system of individual identification of such animals for production purposes only. Henceforth, only such numbers as are described in Regulation 2 shall be recorded as evidence of ownership and for brand inspection purposes. All other numbers or combination of such numbers on shoulder positions shall be recorded for production identification purposes only.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of the regulations promulgated by the Department of Agriculture.

JOE DWYER
