

ANNUAL FISCAL YEAR AGENDA: POTENTIAL SIGNIFICANT RULES UNDER CONSIDERATION FOR DEVELOPMENT

WAC Chapter	Subject	Approximate File Date of CR-101	Approximate Adoption Date (and File Date of CR-103)	Other Agencies That May Be Affected
16-200	Fertilizer Rule "Organic" definition revision. Strive for uniformity with other states in the regulation of organic fertilizers.	1/95	11/95	None
16-228	Non-Food Status: Small Vegetable Seed Crops With WSU, develop a program to assist small vegetable seed growers in gaining new pesticide registrations by classifying the sites as non-food and non-feed sites.	9/94	12/94	None
16-228	Classification of Category I Handlers To adequately ensure the safety of individuals who mix, load and apply highly toxic pesticides.	1/95	10/95	Labor & Industries Health
16-228	Commercial Applicator License Exemptions Exemption to licensure for businesses which commercially apply general use antifouling paints to their customers' marine vessels. WSDA working with DOE to incorporate additional best management practices into their permitting.	10/94	1/95	Ecology
16-228	Revising Private Applicator Expiration Dates Allow for more efficient issuance of annual pesticide licenses	11/94	4/95	None

CODE REVISOR'S OFFICE
 STATE OF WASHINGTON
 FILED

SEP 30 1994

FILED: 9:55
 INSR 94.00.093

16-228

General Pesticide Rules

Some Housekeeping changes;
some technical changes;
penalty matrix changes;
definition and recordkeeping changes. Various section changes planned to be worked with public participation groups.

5/95

(Note: timetable is best estimate)

12/95

Ecology (some sections)
Labor & Industries (some sections)

New MAC

Worker Protection

Declaration of an agricultural emergency under the Worker Protection Standards. Process required under federal regulations.

10/94

3/95

Labor & Industries

For questions contact:

Submitted by:

Jim Jesernig, Director
Washington State Department of Agriculture

Dannie McQueen, Rules Coordinator

Phone: 902-1809