AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending Order 6-A, filed 1/17/78)

WAC 139-04-010 DESCRIPTION OF CENTRAL AND FIELD ORGANIZATION. The Washington state criminal justice training commission consists of ~~((the--commission-and-its-personnel))~~ staff, twelve commissioners, the board on law enforcement training standards and education, the board on prosecutor training standards and education, and the board on correctional training standards and education ~~((,--and-the-board--on--judicial--training--standards--and--education))~~. The primary responsibility of the boards is the recommendation to the commission of training standards, goals, ~~((and))~~ programs, and budget for criminal justice personnel within their specific purview. Recommendations for training pursuant to commission adopted goals and standards may be approved by the executive director of the commission. Other board recommendations will be reviewed by the ~~((commission))~~ commissioners for approval or rejection. Approved recommendations and other matters of the commission necessitating implementation or staff involvement will be assigned by the executive director to appropriate personnel.

The central office of the commission is located on the campus of St. Martin's College, Olympia, Washington. It is maintained by the commission's executive director and staff from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, and serves as a central repository for the commission's records of administration and operation.

The Criminal Justice Training Center, 2450 So. 142nd, Seattle, Washington, serves as the commission's primary training site. Other training is conducted locally, regionally, or at centralized locations state-wide, as determined by staff.
