AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending Order 1-B, filed 9/10/86)

WAC 139-01-810 Review and appeal of action. (1) (~~Any action which directly and adversely affects an individual's interest under this title or chapter 43.101 RCW~~) Unless otherwise provided in this title, student dismissal for academic or disciplinary reasons may be reviewed at the request of such individual, or the head of such individual's employing agency, and shall be considered in accordance with the process hereinafter provided. This section shall not apply to a request for a variance or exemption pursuant to WAC 139-01-820.

(2) An individual requesting review shall submit a request in writing to the executive director and shall therein specify and include, where applicable:

(a) The action for which review is requested, identified by date and description of action;

(b) The direct and adverse effects of such action;

(c) The corrective or remedial action or other relief sought;

(d) The name and mailing address of the requesting party, any witness to be called by the requesting party, and any person who will personally appear in support of the requesting party, including legal counsel; and

(e) A statement that the person signing the request for review has read it and that to the best of his or her knowledge or information and belief the contents thereof are true.

(3) (~~Upon receipt of a request for review which satisfies the requirements of subsection (2) of this section, the executive director shall conduct the review within thirty days.~~

(4) ~~In conducting the review, the executive director may consider any information or testimony determined to be relevant to full consideration of the matter for which review is requested. At least five days prior to the review proceeding, commission staff shall provide to the individual requesting review a complete listing of those individuals who are expected to provide testimony and a copy of any document or other written material which will be offered. If a request is made by commission staff, the individual requesting review shall, at least five days prior to the review proceeding, provide to the commission a complete listing of those individuals who are expected to provide testimony and a copy of any document or any other material which will be offered. At the time of the proceeding, additional witnesses and written materials may be offered by staff or the requesting party, but only if there is a showing of good cause for the failure to provide prior notice of such additional evidence and witnesses. Each review proceeding shall be recorded electronically. Thereafter, such recording shall be transcribed in writing if requested by the appealing party or if directed by the commission or staff.~~

(5) ~~After full consideration of the matter, the executive director shall affirm, rescind, or modify the action for which review is requested and shall give written notice of his decision to the individual requesting review. Such decision of the executive director shall become final unless a written appeal is~~ received by the commission within thirty days of the receipt of such notice. Appeal of such determination may be taken to the training commission at its next scheduled meeting following receipt by the executive director of a written appeal from the involved individual or the head of such individual's employing agency, unless there is insufficient time to permit administration of the appeal, in which case the appeal will be considered at the next succeeding scheduled meeting of the commission. In considering such appeal, the commission shall not be bound by any previous action or determination and may take any action it deems necessary and appropriate to the matter. The commission may consider only the record of the matter consisting of the transcript of the review proceeding and any written material considered by the executive director, as well as any information requested or deemed relevant by the commission chairperson. A complete copy of such record shall be provided to the appellant at least five days prior to the appeal proceeding before the commission. Additional written materials may be submitted at the time of the appeal proceeding by staff or the requesting party if there is a showing of good cause for the failure to provide prior notice of such additional written evidence. Oral arguments by the appellant or the appellant's representative shall be allowed, subject to time limitations set by the chairperson of the commission.)) A request for review must be mailed to or personally served upon the director of the commission within thirty days of the date of written communication of commission staff action. "Mailing" for purposes of this regulation means posting in the United States mail, properly addressed, postage prepaid.

(4) A requesting party may notify the director of the commission within seven days of filing the request for a hearing that the requesting party chooses to first meet with the executive director and ask him or her to informally review the staff action. The executive director will conduct such informal review within thirty days of such request for informal review or within such additional period as is agreed to between the requesting party and the executive director. If the executive director then affirms staff action, or if the requesting party elects to forgo this informal review step, the matter will proceed to a formal hearing by an administrative law judge from the state office of administrative hearings. The administrative law judge will:

(a) Schedule and conduct an adjudicative proceeding under chapter 34.05 RCW; and

(b) Issue an initial decision of the commission in the matter.

The commission staff or the requesting party may then pursue review by the commission subject to the time limits and any other jurisdictional requirements of chapter 34.05 RCW and of this section.

(5) A petition for review of the initial decision must be filed with the commission within thirty days of mailing of the initial decision to the parties. Extensions of the time for filing petitions for review may be granted for good cause shown in the discretion of the chairperson of the commission on timely written request of a party. The petition for review shall set forth in detail the grounds for review, and the party filing the petition shall be deemed to have waived all objections or claims of irregularities not specifically set forth therein. At the next succeeding regularly scheduled meeting of the commission at which review can practically be conducted, the commission shall consider the whole record, or such portions of it as are cited by the parties. The commission shall afford the parties an opportunity to present written argument, and may, as a matter of discretion, allow oral argument. Thereafter, a final decision shall be entered within thirty days of the meeting, either finally disposing of the action or remanding the matter for further proceedings before the initial reviewer.
