10 as follows:

11 Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in 12 this section apply throughout this chapter:

13 (1) "Governing body" means the board of commissioners, board of 14 supervisors, or board of directors of a special district.

1 (2) "Owner of land" means the record owner of at least a majority 2 ownership interest in a separate and legally created lot or parcel of 3 land, as determined by the records of the county auditor, except that 4 if the lot or parcel has been sold under a real estate contract, the 5 vendee or grantee shall be deemed to be the owner of such land for 6 purposes of authorizing voting rights. It is assumed, unless shown 7 otherwise, that the name appearing as the owner of property on the 8 property tax rolls is the current owner.

9 (3) "Qualified voter of a special district" means a person who is 10 either: (a) A natural person who is a voter under general state 11 election laws, registered to vote in the state of Washington for a 20 shall not be eligible to vote to elect a member of the governing board 21 of a special district. ~~((If land is owned as community property, both 22 spouses may vote if otherwise qualified. If other multiple undivided 23 interests exist in a lot or parcel, and no person owns a majority 24 undivided interest, the owners of undivided interests at least equal to 25 a majority interest may designate in writing which owner is eligible to 26 vote. A corporation, partnership or governmental entity shall 27 designate a natural person to exercise its voting powers. Except as 28 provided in RCW 85.05.015 and 86.09.377, no owner of land may cast more

19 a majority interest may designate in writing:

20 (a) Which owner is eligible to vote and may cast two votes; or

21 (b) Which two owners are eligible to vote and may cast one vote 22 each.

23 (3) If land is owned as community property, each spouse is entitled 24 to one vote if both spouses otherwise qualify to vote, unless one 25 spouse designates in writing that the other spouse may cast both votes.

26 (4) A corporation, partnership, or governmental entity shall 27 designate:

28 (a) A natural person to cast its two votes; or

5 to read as follows:

10 If only one person files for the position, he or she shall be 11 considered to have been elected to the position at the election that 12 otherwise would have taken place for such position.

13 If no one files for the position and the upcoming election is one 14 at which someone would have been elected to fill the expired term, the 15 position shall be treated as vacant at the expiration of the term.

16 If no one files for the position and the upcoming election is one 17 at which someone would have been elected to fill the remaining term of 18 office, the person appointed to fill the vacancy shall be considered to 19 have been elected to the position at the election and shall serve for 20 the remainder of the unexpired term.

28 maintenance of such diking and drainage system will be beneficial to 1 the health and general welfare of the inhabitants of ((said)) the 2 incorporated city ((and to the general welfare of the said city)) or 3 town, then the city or town council ((of said city is hereby empowered 4 and authorized to)) may appropriate ((such amount of)) money out of the 12 assessments to the diking or drainage district.

13 Sec. 8. RCW 85.38.040 and 1985 c 396 s 5 are each amended to read
14 as follows:

15 The county legislative authority shall schedule a public hearing on 16 the proposed special district if the county engineer's report indicates 17 that the proposed projects are feasible. If the engineers of each of 18 the counties within which a proposed special district is located 19 indicate that the proposed projects are feasible, the county 20 legislative authorities shall schedule a joint public hearing on the 21 proposed special district. The county legislative authority may, on 22 its own initiative, schedule a public hearing on the proposed special 23 district if the county engineer's report indicates that the proposed 24 projects are not feasible. The county legislative authorities of 25 counties within which a proposed special district is located may, on 26 their own initiative, schedule a joint public hearing on the proposed 27 special district if one or more of the county engineers' reports 28 indicate that the proposed projects are not feasible.

1 Notice of the public hearing shall be published (~~and posted as~~ 2 ~~provided in RCW 85.38.120 for notices of elections. Additional notice~~ 3 ~~of the public hearing shall be published~~) in ((the)) a newspaper 4 ((in)) of general circulation within the proposed special district, 5 which notice shall be purchased in the manner of a general 6 advertisement, not to be included with legal advertisements or with 7 classified advertisements. This (~~additional~~) notice shall be 8 published at least twice, not more than twenty nor less than three days 9 before public hearing. Additional notice shall be made as required in 10 RCW 79.44.040.

11 The notice must contain the following: (1) The date, time, and 12 place of the public hearing; (2) a statement that a particular special 13 district is proposed to be created; (3) a general description of the 14 proposed projects to be completed by the special district; (4) a 15 general description of the proposed special district boundaries; and 16 (5) a statement that all affected persons may appear and present their 17 comments in favor of or against the creation of the proposed special 18 district.

19 Sec. 9. RCW 85.38.050 and 1985 c 396 s 6 are each amended to read
20 as follows:

21 The county legislative authority or authorities shall conduct the 22 public hearing at the date, time, and place indicated in the notice.
23 Public hearings may be continued to other dates, times, and places 24 specified by the county legislative authority or authorities before the 25 adjournment of the public hearing. Each county legislative authority 26 may alter those portions of boundaries of the proposed special district 27 that are located within the county, but if territory is added that was 28 not described in the original proposed boundaries, an additional

1 hearing on the proposal shall be held with notice being (~~posted and~~) 2 published as provided in RCW 85.38.040.

3 After receiving the public testimony, the county legislative 4 authority may cause an election to be held to authorize the creation of 5 a special district if it finds:

6 (1) That creation of the special district will be conducive to the 7 public health, convenience and welfare;

8 (2) That the creation of the special district will be of special 9 benefit to a majority of the lands included within the special 10 district; and

11 (3) That the proposed improvements are feasible and economical, and 12 that the benefits of these improvements exceed costs for the 13 improvements.

14 If the proposed special district is located within two or more 15 counties, the county legislative authorities may cause an election to 16 be held to authorize the creation of the special district upon making 17 the findings set forth in subsections (1) through (3) of this section.

18 The county legislative authority or authorities may also choose not 19 to allow such an election to be held by either failing to act or 20 finding that one or more of these factors are not met.

21 Sec. 10. RCW 85.38.060 and 1985 c 396 s 7 are each amended to read
22 as follows:

23 The county legislative authority or authorities shall cause an 24 election on the question of creating the special district to be held if 25 findings as provided in RCW 85.38.050 are made. The county legislative 26 authority or authorities shall designate a time and date for such 27 election, which shall be one of the special election dates provided for 28 in RCW 29.13.020, together with the site or sites at which votes may be 29 cast. The persons allowed to vote on the creation of a special

1 district shall be those persons who, if the special district were 2 created, would be qualified voters of the special district as described 3 in RCW 85.38.010. The county auditor or auditors of the counties 4 within which the proposed special district is located shall conduct the 5 election and prepare a list of presumed eligible voters.

6 Notices for the election shall be published ((and posted)) as 7 provided in RCW 85.38.040. The special district shall be created if 8 the proposition to create the special district is approved by a simple 9 majority vote of the voters voting on the proposition and the special 10 district may assume operations whenever the initial members of the 11 governing body are appointed as provided in RCW 85.38.070.

12 Any special district created after July 28, 1985, may only have 13 special assessments measured and imposed, and budgets adopted, as 14 provided in RCW 85.38.140 through 85.38.170.

15 If the special district is created, the county or counties may 16 charge the special district for the costs incurred by the county 17 engineer or engineers pursuant to RCW 85.38.030 and the costs of the 18 auditor or auditors related to the election to authorize the creation 19 of the special district pursuant to this section. Such county actions 20 shall be deemed to be special benefits of the property located within 21 the special district that are paid through the imposition of special 22 assessments.

23 Sec. 11. RCW 85.38.070 and 1987 c 298 s 2 are each amended to read
24 as follows:

25 (1) Except as provided in RCW 85.38.090, each special district
26 shall be governed by a three-member governing body. The term of office 27 for each member of a special district governing body shall be six years 28 and until his or her successor is elected and qualified. One member of 29 the governing body shall be elected at the time of special district

1 general elections in each (~~odd-numbered~~) even-numbered year for a 2 term of six years beginning as (~~provided in RCW 29.04.170~~) soon as 3 the election returns have been certified for assumption of office by 4 elected officials of cities.

5 (2) The terms of office of members of the governing bodies of 6 special districts, who are holding office on July 28, 1985, shall be 7 altered to provide staggered six-year terms as provided in this 8 subsection. The member who on July 28, 1985, has the longest term 9 remaining shall have his or her term altered so that the position will 10 be filled at the (~~December, 1991,~~) February 1992, special district 11 general election; the member with the second longest term remaining 12 shall have his or her term altered so that the position will be filled 13 at the December, 1989, special district general election; and the 14 member with the third longest term of office shall have his or her term 15 altered so that the position will be filled at the December, 1987, 16 special district general election.

17 (3) The initial members of the governing body of a newly created 18 special district shall be appointed by the legislative authority of the 19 county within which the special district, or the largest portion of the 20 special district, is located. These initial governing body members 21 shall serve until their successors are elected and qualified at the 22 next special district general election held at least ninety days after 23 the special district is established. At that election the first 24 elected members of the governing body shall be elected. No primary 25 elections may be held. Any voter of a special district may become a 26 candidate for such a position by filing written notice of this 27 intention with the (~~governing body of the special district~~) county 28 auditor at least thirty, but not more than sixty, days before a special 29 district general election. The county auditor in consultation with the 30 special district shall establish the filing period. The names of all

1 candidates for such positions shall be listed alphabetically. At this 2 first election, the candidate receiving the greatest number of votes 3 shall have a six-year term, the candidate receiving the second greatest 4 number of votes shall have a four-year term, and the candidate 5 receiving the third greatest number of votes shall have a two-year term 6 of office. The initially elected members of a governing body shall 7 take office immediately when qualified as defined in RCW 29.01.135.
8 Thereafter the candidate receiving the greatest number of votes shall 9 be elected for a six-year term of office. Members of a governing body 10 shall hold their office until their successors are elected and 11 qualified, and assume office as (~~provided in RCW 29.04.170~~) soon as 12 the election returns have been certified.

13 (4) The requirements for the filing period and method for filing 14 declarations of candidacy for the governing body of the district and 15 the arrangement of candidate names on the ballot for all special 16 district elections conducted after the initial election in the district 17 shall be the same as the requirements for the initial election in the 18 district. No primary elections may be held for the governing body of 19 a special district.

20 (5) Whenever a vacancy occurs in the governing body of a special 21 district, the legislative authority of the county within which the 22 special district, or the largest portion of the special district, is 23 located, shall appoint a district voter to serve until a person is 24 elected, at the next special district general election occurring sixty 25 or more days after the vacancy has occurred, to serve the remainder of 26 the unexpired term. The person so elected shall take office 27 immediately when qualified as defined in RCW 29.01.135.

28 If an election for the position which became vacant would otherwise 29 have been held at this special district election, only one election 30 shall be held and the person elected to fill the succeeding term for

1 that position shall take office immediately when qualified as defined 2 in RCW 29.01.135 and shall serve both the remainder of the unexpired
3 term and the succeeding term. A vacancy occurs upon the death, 4 resignation, or incapacity of a governing body member or whenever the 5 governing body member ceases being a qualified voter of the special 6 district.

7 ~~((+5))~~ (6) An elected or appointed member of a special district 8 governing body, or a candidate for a special district governing body, 9 must be a qualified voter of the special district: PROVIDED, That the 10 state, its agencies and political subdivisions, or their designees 11 under RCW 85.38.010(3) shall not be eligible for election or 12 appointment.

13 Sec. 12. RCW 85.38.090 and 1985 c 396 s 10 are each amended to 14 read as follows:

15 (1) Whenever the governing body of a special district has more than 16 three members, the governing body shall be reduced to three members as 17 of January 1, 1986, by eliminating the positions of those district 18 governing body members with the shortest remaining terms of office.
19 The remaining three governing body members shall have staggered terms 20 with the one having the shortest remaining term having his or her 21 position filled at the 1987 special district general election, the one 22 with the next shortest remaining term having his or her position filled 23 at the 1989 special district general election, and the one with the 24 longest remaining term having his or her position filled at the 25 ~~((1991))~~ 1992 special district general election. If any of these 26 remaining three governing body members have identical remaining terms 27 of office, the newly calculated remaining terms of these persons shall 28 be determined by lot with the county auditor who assists the special

1 district in its elections managing such lot procedure. The newly 2 established terms shall be recorded by the county auditor.

3 (2) However, whenever five or more special districts have 4 consolidated under chapter 85.36 RCW and the consolidated district has 5 five members in its governing body on July 28, 1985, the consolidated 6 district may adopt a resolution retaining a five-member governing body.
7 At any time thereafter, such a district may adopt a resolution and 8 reduce the size of the governing body to three members with the 9 reduction occurring as provided in subsection (1) of this section, but 10 the years of the effective dates shall be extended so that the 11 reduction occurs at the next January 1st occurring after the date of 12 the adoption of the resolution. Whenever a special district is so 13 governed by a five-member governing body, two members shall be elected 14 at each of two consecutive special district general elections, and one 15 member shall be elected at the following special district general 16 election, each to serve a six-year staggered term.

17 Sec. 13. RCW 85.38.110 and 1985 c 396 s 12 are each amended to 18 read as follows:

19 A list of presumed eligible voters shall be prepared and maintained
20 by each special district. The list shall include the assessor's tax 21 number for each lot or parcel in the district, the name or the names of 22 the owners of such lots and parcels and their mailing address, the 23 extent of the ownership interest of such persons, and if such persons 24 are natural persons, whether they are known to be registered voters in 25 the state of Washington. Whenever such a list is prepared, the 26 district shall attempt to notify each owner of the requirements 27 necessary to establish voting authority to vote. Whenever lots or 28 parcels in the district are sold, the district shall attempt to notify 29 the purchasers of the requirements necessary to establish voting

1 authority. Each special district shall provide a copy of this list, 2 and any revised list, to the auditor of the county within which all or 3 the largest portion of the special district is located. The special 4 district must compile the list of eligible voters and provide it to the 5 county auditor by the first day of November preceding the special 6 district general election. In the event the special district does not 7 provide the county auditor with the list of qualified voters by this 8 date, the county auditor shall compile the list and charge the special 9 district for the costs required for its preparation. The county 10 auditor shall not be held responsible for any errors in the list.

11 Sec. 14. RCW 85.38.120 and 1985 c 396 s 13 are each amended to 12 read as follows:

13 The auditor of the county within which a special district, or the 14 largest portion of a special district, is located shall assist such 15 special district with its elections as provided in this section.

16 (1) The county auditor shall ((both)) publish ((and post notices 17 for such elections. Notices shall be posted in at least four 18 conspicuous public places within the special district at least two 19 weeks before the election. Notices shall also be published)) notice of 20 an election to create a special district and notice of all special 21 district elections not conducted by mail in a newspaper of general 22 circulation in the special district at least once not more than ten nor 23 less than three days before the election. The notices shall describe 24 the election, give its date and times to be held, and indicate the 25 election site or sites in the special district where ballots may be 26 cast.

27 (2) If a special district has at least five hundred qualified
28 voters, then the county auditor shall publish in a newspaper of general 29 circulation in the special district a notice of the filing period and

1 place for filing a declaration of candidacy to become a member of the 2 governing body. This notice shall be published at least seven days 3 prior to the closing of the filing period. If the special district has 4 less than five hundred qualified voters, then the special district 5 shall mail or deliver this notice to each qualified voter of the 6 special district at least seven days prior to the closing of the filing 7 period.

8 (3) All costs of the county auditor incurred related to such 9 elections shall be reimbursed by the special district. ((A special 10 district may also contract with the county auditor to staff the voting 11 site during the election or contract with the county auditor to conduct 12 the election pursuant to RCW 29.36.120.))

13 NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 85.38 RCW
14 to read as follows:

15 (1) If a special district has less than five hundred qualified 16 voters, then the special district must contract with the county auditor 17 to conduct the special district elections. The county auditor has the 18 discretion as to whether to conduct the election by mail.

19 (2) If a special district has at least five hundred qualified 20 voters, the special district may contract with the county auditor to 21 staff the voting site during the election or contract with the county 22 auditor to conduct the election by mail. A special district with at 23 least five hundred qualified voters may also choose to conduct its own 24 elections. A special district that conducts its own elections must 25 enter into an agreement with the county auditor that specifies the 26 responsibilities of both parties.

27 (3) If the county auditor conducts a special district election by 28 mail, then the provisions of chapter 29.36 RCW which govern elections 29 by mail, except for the requirements of RCW 29.36.120, shall apply.

1 Sec. 16. RCW 85.38.130 and 1985 c 396 s 14 are each amended to

3 For special district elections that are not conducted by mail, the 4 governing body of each special district shall appoint three voters of 5 the special district, who may be members of the governing body, to act 6 as election officials, unless the special district contracts with the 7 county auditor to staff the election site. The election officials 8 shall distribute a ballot or ballots to each voter of the special 9 district who arrives at the voting place during the hours for the 10 election on the day of the election and requests a ballot. Ballots 11 shall also be provided to those persons arriving at the polling place 12 during the hours for the election on the day of the election who 13 present documents or evidence sufficient to establish their eligibility 14 to vote. A person arriving at the polling place at such times who 15 demands a ballot, but who fails to present documents or evidence which 16 in the opinion of the election officials is sufficient to establish 17 eligibility to vote, shall be given a ballot clearly marked as 18 "challenged" and shall be allowed to vote. Each challenged ballot 19 shall be numbered consecutively and a list of such persons and their 20 ballot numbers shall be made.

21 The governing body of each special district shall designate those 29 to the auditor's office. The auditor shall count the ballots and 30 certify the count of votes for and against each measure and for each

1 candidate appearing on the ballot. A separate count shall be made of 2 any challenged ballots. A challenged ballot shall be counted as a 3 normal ballot if documents or evidence are supplied to the auditor 4 before 4:00 p.m. on the day after the election that, in the opinion of 5 the auditor, are sufficient to establish the person's eligibility to 6 vote.

7 Additionally, voting by absentee ballot shall be allowed in every 8 special district. A request for an absentee ballot may be made by an 9 eligible voter by mail or in person to the county auditor who 10 supervises the special district elections. An absentee ballot shall be 11 provided to each voter of a special district requesting such a ballot
12 under this section. A person requesting such a ballot may present 13 information establishing his or her eligibility to vote in such a 14 special district. The auditor shall provide an absentee ballot to each 15 person requesting an absentee ballot who is either included on the list 16 of presumed eligible voters or who submits information which, in the 17 auditor's opinion, establishes his or her eligibility to vote. The 18 names of these persons so determined to be eligible to vote shall be 19 added to the list of presumed eligible voters for the appropriate 20 special district. The request for an absentee ballot must be made no 21 more than forty-five days before the election. To be valid, absentee
