
SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL 5574

State of Washington

53rd Legislature

1993 Regular Session

By Senate Committee on Labor & Commerce (originally sponsored by Senators Williams, Moore, Pelz and Franklin)

Read first time 03/03/93.

1 AN ACT Relating to consumer credit reporting agencies; adding a new 2 chapter to Title 19 RCW; prescribing penalties; and providing an 3 effective date.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

5 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds and declares that 6 consumers have a vital interest in establishing and maintaining 7 creditworthiness. The legislature further finds that an elaborate 8 mechanism using credit reports has developed for investigating and 9 evaluating a consumer's creditworthiness, credit capacity, and general 10 reputation and character. As such, credit reports are used for 11 evaluating credit card, loan, mortgage, and small business financing 12 applications, as well as for decisions regarding employment and the 13 rental or leasing of dwellings. Moreover, financial institutions and 14 other creditors depend upon fair and accurate credit reports to 15 efficiently and accurately evaluate creditworthiness. Unfair or 16 inaccurate reports undermine both public and creditor confidences in 17 the reliability of credit granting systems.

18 Therefore, this chapter is necessary to assure accurate credit data 19 collection, maintenance, and reporting on the citizens of the state.

1 It is the policy of the state that credit reporting agencies maintain 2 accurate credit reports, resolve disputed reports promptly and fairly, 3 and adopt reasonable procedures to promote consumer confidentiality and 4 the proper use of credit data in accordance with this chapter.

5 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This chapter shall be known as the Fair 6 Credit Reporting Act.

7 NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly requires 8 otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this 9 chapter.

10 (1)(a) "Adverse action" includes:

11 (i) Denial of, increase in any charge for, or reduction in the 12 amount of insurance for personal, family, or household purposes;

13 (ii) Denial of employment or any other decision for employment 14 purposes that adversely affects a current or prospective employee; and 15 (iii) Action or determination with respect to a consumer's 16 application for credit that is adverse to the interests of the 17 consumer.

18 (b) "Adverse action" does not include a refusal to extend 19 additional credit under an existing credit arrangement if:

20 (i) The applicant is delinquent or otherwise in default with 21 respect to the arrangement; or

22 (ii) The additional credit would exceed a previously established 23 credit limit.

24 (2) "Attorney general" means the office of the attorney general.

25 (3) "Consumer" means an individual.

26 (4)(a) "Consumer report" means a written, oral, or other 27 communication of information by a consumer reporting agency bearing on 28 a consumer's creditworthiness, credit standing, credit capacity, 29 character, general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of 30 living that is used or expected to be used or collected in whole or in 31 part for:

32 (i) The purpose of serving as a factor in establishing the 33 consumer's eligibility for credit or insurance to be used primarily for 34 personal, family, or household purposes;

35 (ii) Employment purposes; or

36 (iii) Other purposes authorized under section 4 of this act.

37 (b) "Consumer report" does not include:

1 (i) A report containing information solely as to transactions or 2 experiences between the consumer and the person making the report;

3 (ii) An authorization or approval of a specific extension of credit 4 directly or indirectly by the issuer of a credit card or similar 5 device;

6 (iii) A report in which a person who has been requested by a third 7 party to make a specific extension of credit directly or indirectly to 8 a consumer conveys his or her decision with respect to the request, if 9 the third party advises the consumer of the name and address of the 10 person to whom the request was made and the person makes the 11 disclosures to the consumer required under section 9 of this act; or 12 (iv) A report solely conveying a decision whether to guarantee a 13 check in response to a request by a third party.

14 (5) "Consumer reporting agency" means a person who, for monetary 15 fees, dues, or on a cooperative nonprofit basis, regularly engages in 16 whole or in part in the business of assembling or evaluating consumer 17 credit information or other information on consumers for the purpose of 18 furnishing consumer reports to third parties, and who uses any means or 19 facility of commerce for the purpose of preparing or furnishing 20 consumer reports. "Consumer reporting agency" does not include a 21 person solely by reason of conveying a decision whether to guarantee a 22 check in response to a request by a third party or a person who obtains 23 a consumer report and provides the report or information contained in 24 it to a subsidiary or affiliate of the person.

25 (6) "Credit transaction that is not initiated by the consumer" does 26 not include the use of a consumer report by a person with which the 27 consumer has an account, for purposes of (a) reviewing the account, or 28 (b) collecting the account.

29 (7) "Employment purposes," when used in connection with a consumer 30 report, means a report used for the purpose of evaluating a consumer 31 for employment, promotion, reassignment, or retention as an employee.

32 (8) "File," when used in connection with information on any 33 consumer, means all of the information on that consumer recorded and 34 retained by a consumer reporting agency regardless of how the 35 information is stored.

36 (9) "Investigative consumer report" means a consumer report or 37 portion of it in which information on a consumer's character, general 38 reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living is obtained 39 through personal interviews with neighbors, friends, or associates of 1 the consumer reported on or with others with whom the consumer is 2 acquainted or who may have knowledge concerning any items of 3 information. However, the information does not include specific 4 factual information on a consumer's credit record obtained directly 5 from a creditor of the consumer or from a consumer reporting agency 6 when the information was obtained directly from a creditor of the 7 consumer or from the consumer.

8 (10) "Medical information" means information or records obtained, 9 with the consent of the individual to whom it relates, from a licensed 10 physician or medical practitioner, hospital, clinic, or other medical 11 or medically related facility.

12 (11) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, government or 13 governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, estate, trust, 14 partnership, association, and any other legal or commercial entity.

15 (12) "Prescreening" means the process in which the consumer 16 reporting agency compiles or edits for a client a list of consumers who 17 meet specific criteria and provides this list to the client or a third 18 party on behalf of the client for use in soliciting those consumers for 19 an offer of credit, product, or service.

20 NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) A consumer reporting agency may furnish 21 a consumer report only under the following circumstances:

22 (a) In response to the order of a court having jurisdiction to 23 issue the order;

24 (b) In accordance with the written instructions of the consumer to 25 whom it relates; or

26 (c) To a person that the agency has reason to believe:

27 (i) Intends to use the information in connection with a credit 28 transaction involving the consumer on whom the information is to be 29 furnished and involving the extension of credit to, or review or 30 collection of an account of, the consumer;

31 (ii) Intends to use the information for employment purposes;

32 (iii) Intends to use the information in connection with the 33 underwriting of insurance involving the consumer;

34 (iv) Intends to use the information in connection with a 35 determination of the consumer's eligibility for a license or other 36 benefit granted by a governmental instrumentality required by law to 37 consider an applicant's financial responsibility or status; or

1 (v) Otherwise has a legitimate business need for the information in 2 connection with a business transaction involving the consumer.

3 (2)(a) A person may not procure a consumer report, or cause a 4 consumer report to be procured, for employment purposes with respect to 5 any consumer who is not an employee at the time the report is procured 6 or caused to be procured unless:

7 (i) A clear and conspicuous disclosure has been made in writing to 8 the consumer before the report is procured or caused to be procured 9 that a consumer report may be obtained for purposes of considering the 10 consumer for employment. The disclosure may be contained in a written 11 statement contained in employment application materials; or 12 (ii) The consumer authorizes the procurement of the report.

13 (b) A person may not procure a consumer report, or cause a consumer 14 report to be procured, for employment purposes with respect to any 15 employee unless the employee has received, at any time after the person 16 became an employee, written notice that credit reports may be used for 17 employment purposes. A written statement that credit reports may be 18 used for employment purposes that is contained in employee guidelines 19 or manuals available to employees or included in written materials 20 provided to employees constitutes written notice for purposes of this 21 subsection. This subsection does not apply with respect to a consumer 22 report of an employee who the employer has reasonable cause to believe 23 has engaged in specific activity that constitutes a violation of law.

24 (c) In using a consumer report for employment purposes, before 25 taking any adverse action based in whole or part on the report, a 26 person shall provide to the consumer to whom the report relates: (i) 27 The name, address, and telephone number of the consumer reporting 28 agency providing the report; (ii) a description of the consumer's 29 rights under this chapter pertaining to credit reports obtained for 30 employment purposes; and (iii) a reasonable opportunity to respond to 31 any information in the report that is disputed by the consumer.

32 NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) A consumer reporting agency may provide 33 a consumer report relating to a consumer under section 4(1)(c)(i) of 34 this act in connection with a credit transaction that is not initiated 35 by the consumer only if:

36 (a) The consumer authorized the consumer reporting agency to 37 provide the report to such a person; or

1 (b) The consumer has not elected in accordance with subsection (3) 2 of this section to have the consumer's name and address excluded from 3 such transactions.

4 (2) A consumer reporting agency may provide only the following 5 information under subsection (1) of this section:

6 (a) The name and address of the consumer; and 7 (b) Information pertaining to a consumer that is not identified or 8 identifiable with a particular consumer.

9 (3)(a) A consumer may elect to have his or her name and address 10 excluded from any list provided by a consumer reporting agency under 11 subsection (1) of this section or through prescreening for direct 12 marketing transactions that are not initiated by the consumer by 13 notifying the consumer reporting agency. The notice must be made in 14 writing through the notification system maintained by the consumer 15 reporting agency under subsection (4) of this section and must state 16 that the consumer does not consent to any use of consumer credit 17 reports relating to the consumer in connection with any transaction 18 that is not initiated by the consumer.

19 (b) An election of a consumer under (a) of this subsection is 20 effective with respect to a consumer and any affiliate of the consumer 21 reporting agency, within five business days after the consumer 22 reporting agency receives the consumer's notice.

23 (4) A consumer reporting agency that provides information intended 24 to be used in a prescreened credit or business transaction that is not 25 initiated by the consumer shall:

26 (a) Maintain a notification system that facilitates the ability of 27 a consumer in the agency's data base to notify the agency to promptly 28 withdraw the consumer's name from prescreening and credit transactions 29 not initiated by the consumer; and

30 (b) Publish at least annually in a publication of general
31 circulation in the area served by the agency, the address for consumers 32 to use to notify the agency of the consumer's election under subsection 33 (3) of this section.

34 (5) A consumer reporting agency that maintains consumer reports on 35 a nation-wide basis shall establish a system meeting the requirements 36 of subsection (4) of this section on a nation-wide basis, and may 37 operate such a system jointly with any other consumer reporting 38 agencies.

1 (6) Compliance with the requirements of this section by any 2 consumer reporting agency constitutes compliance by the agency's 3 affiliates.

4 NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Except as authorized under subsection 5 (2) of this section, no consumer reporting agency may make a consumer 6 report containing any of the following items of information:

7 (a) Bankruptcies that, from date of adjudication of the most recent 8 bankruptcy, antedate the report by more than ten years;

9 (b) Suits and judgments that, from date of entry, antedate the 10 report by more than seven years or until the governing statute of 11 limitations has expired, whichever is the longer period;

12 (c) Paid tax liens that, from date of payment, antedate the report
13 by more than seven years;

14 (d) Accounts placed for collection or charged to profit and loss 15 that antedate the report by more than seven years;

16 (e) Records of arrest, indictment, or conviction of crime that, 17 from date of disposition, release, or parole, antedate the report by 18 more than seven years;

19 (f) Any other adverse item of information that antedates the report
20 by more than seven years.

21 (2) Subsection (1) of this section is not applicable in the case of 22 a consumer credit report to be used in connection with:

23 (a) A credit transaction involving, or that may reasonably be 24 expected to involve, a principal amount of fifty thousand dollars or 25 more;

26 (b) The underwriting of life insurance involving, or that may 27 reasonably be expected to involve, a face amount of fifty thousand 28 dollars or more; or

29 (c) The employment of an individual at an annual salary that 30 equals, or that may reasonably be expected to equal, twenty thousand 31 dollars or more.

32 NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) A person may not procure or cause to be 33 prepared an investigative consumer report on a consumer unless:

34 (a) It is clearly and accurately disclosed to the consumer that an 35 investigative consumer report including information as to the 36 consumer's character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and

1 mode of living, whichever are applicable, may be made, and the 2 disclosure:

3 (i) Is made in a writing mailed, or otherwise delivered, to the 4 consumer not later than three days after the date on which the report 5 was first requested; and

6 (ii) Includes a statement informing the consumer of the consumer's 7 right to request the additional disclosures provided for under 8 subsection (2) of this section and the written summary of the rights of 9 the consumer prepared under section 10(7) of this act; or 10 (b) The report is to be used for employment purposes for which the 11 consumer has not specifically applied.

12 (2) A person who procures or causes to be prepared an investigative 13 consumer report on a consumer shall make, upon written request made by 14 the consumer within a reasonable period of time after the receipt by 15 the consumer of the disclosure required in subsection (1)(a) of this 16 section, a complete and accurate disclosure of the nature and scope of 17 the investigation requested. This disclosure must be made in a writing 18 mailed, or otherwise delivered, to the consumer not later than the 19 latter of five days after the date on which the request for the 20 disclosure was either received from the consumer or the report was 21 first requested.

22 (3) No person may be held liable for a violation of subsection (1) 23 or (2) of this section if the person shows by a preponderance of the 24 evidence that at the time of the violation the person maintained 25 reasonable procedures to assure compliance with subsection (1) or (2)
26 of this section.

27 (4) A consumer reporting agency shall maintain a detailed record 28 of:

29 (a) The identity of the person to whom an investigative consumer 30 report or information from a consumer report is provided by the 31 consumer reporting agency; and

32 (b) The certified purpose for which an investigative consumer 33 report on a consumer, or any other information relating to a consumer, 34 is requested by the person.

35 For purposes of this subsection, "person" does not include an 36 individual who requests the report unless the individual obtains the 37 report or information for his or her own individual purposes.

1 NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) A consumer reporting agency shall 2 maintain reasonable procedures designed to avoid violations of section 3 6 of this act and to limit the furnishing of consumer reports to the 4 purposes listed under section 4 of this act. These procedures must 5 require that prospective users of the information identify themselves, 6 certify the purposes for which the information is sought, and certify 7 that the information will be used for no other purpose. A consumer 8 reporting agency shall make a reasonable effort to verify the identity 9 of a new prospective user and the uses certified by the prospective 10 user before furnishing the user a consumer report. No consumer 11 reporting agency may furnish a consumer report to a person if the 12 agency has reasonable grounds for believing that the consumer report 13 will not be used for a purpose listed in section 4 of this act.

14 (2) Whenever a consumer reporting agency prepares a consumer report 15 it shall follow reasonable procedures to assure maximum possible 16 accuracy of the information concerning the individual about whom the 17 report relates.

18 (3) Notwithstanding section 4 of this act, a consumer reporting 19 agency may furnish identifying information about a consumer, limited to 20 the consumer's name, address, former addresses, places of employment, 21 or former places of employment, to a governmental agency.

22 (4) A consumer reporting agency shall maintain a detailed record 23 of:

24 (a) The identity of any person to whom a consumer report or 25 information from a consumer report is provided by the consumer 26 reporting agency; and

27 (b) The certified purpose for which a consumer report on a 28 consumer, or any other information relating to a consumer, is requested 29 by any person.

30 For purposes of this subsection, "person" does not include an 31 individual who requests the report unless the individual obtains the 32 report or information for his or her own purposes.

33 NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A consumer reporting agency shall, upon 34 request by the consumer, clearly and accurately disclose:

35 (1) All information in the file on the consumer at the time of 36 request, except that medical information may be withheld. The agency 37 shall inform the consumer of the existence of medical information, and 38 the consumer has the right to have that information disclosed to the

1 health care provider of the consumer's choice. Nothing in this chapter 2 prevents, or authorizes a consumer reporting agency to prevent, the 3 health care provider from disclosing the medical information to the 4 consumer. The agency shall inform the consumer of the right to 5 disclosure of medical information at the time the consumer requests 6 disclosure of his or her file.

7 (2) All items of information in its files on that consumer, 8 including disclosure of the sources of the information, except that 9 sources of information acquired solely for use in an investigative 10 report may only be disclosed to a plaintiff under appropriate discovery 11 procedures.

12 (3) Identification of (a) each person who for employment purposes 13 within the two-year period before the request, and (b) each person who 14 for any other purpose within the six-month period before the request, 15 procured a consumer report.

16 (4) A record identifying all inquiries received by the agency in 17 the six-month period before the request that identified the consumer in 18 connection with a credit transaction that is not initiated by the 19 consumer.

20 (5) An identification of a person under subsection (3) or (4) of 21 this section must include (a) the name of the person or, if applicable, 22 the trade name under which the person conducts business; and (b) upon 23 request of the consumer, the address of the person.

24 NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) A consumer reporting agency shall make 25 the disclosures required under section 9 of this act during normal 26 business hours and on reasonable notice.

27 (2) The consumer reporting agency shall make the disclosures 28 required under section 9 of this act to the consumer:

29 (a) In person if the consumer appears in person and furnishes 30 proper identification;

31 (b) By telephone if the consumer has made a written request, with 32 proper identification, for telephone disclosure and the toll charge, if 33 any, for the telephone call is prepaid by or charged directly to the 34 consumer; or

35 (c) By any other reasonable means that are available to the 36 consumer reporting agency if that means is authorized by the consumer.

1 (3) A consumer reporting agency shall provide trained personnel to 2 explain to the consumer, information furnished to the consumer under 3 section 9 of this act.

4 (4) The consumer reporting agency shall permit the consumer to be 5 accompanied by one other person of the consumer's choosing, who shall 6 furnish reasonable identification. A consumer reporting agency may 7 require the consumer to furnish a written statement granting permission 8 to the consumer reporting agency to discuss the consumer's file in the 9 other person's presence.

10 (5) If a credit score is provided by a credit reporting agency to 11 a consumer, the agency shall provide an explanation of the meaning of 12 the credit score.

13 (6) Except as provided in section 17 of this act, no consumer may 14 bring an action or proceeding in the nature of defamation, invasion of 15 privacy, or negligence with respect to the reporting of information 16 against a consumer reporting agency or a user of information, based on 17 information disclosed under this section or section 9 of this act, 18 except as to false information furnished with malice or willful intent 19 to injure the consumer. Except as provided in section 17 of this act, 20 no consumer may bring an action or proceeding against a person who 21 provides information to a consumer reporting agency in the nature of 22 defamation, invasion of privacy, or negligence for unintentional error.

23 (7)(a) A consumer reporting agency must provide to a consumer, with 24 each written disclosure by the agency to the consumer under section 9 25 of this act, a written summary of all rights and remedies the consumer 26 has under this chapter.

27 (b) The summary of the rights and remedies of consumers under this 28 chapter must include:

29 (i) A brief description of this chapter and all rights and remedies 30 of consumers under this chapter;

31 (ii) An explanation of how the consumer may exercise the rights and 32 remedies of the consumer under this chapter; and

33 (iii) A list of all state agencies, including the attorney 34 general's office, responsible for enforcing any provision of this 35 chapter and the address and appropriate phone number of each such 36 agency.

37 NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) If the completeness or accuracy of an 38 item of information contained in a consumer's file at a consumer

1 reporting agency is disputed by the consumer and the consumer notifies 2 the agency directly of the dispute, the agency shall reinvestigate 3 without charge and record the current status of the disputed 4 information before the end of thirty business days, beginning on the 5 date the agency receives the notice from the consumer.

6 (2) Before the end of the five business-day period beginning on the 7 date a consumer reporting agency receives notice of a dispute from a 8 consumer in accordance with subsection (1) of this section, the agency 9 shall notify any person who provided an item of information in dispute.

10 (3)(a) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, a consumer 11 reporting agency may terminate a reinvestigation of information 12 disputed by a consumer under subsection (1) of this section if the 13 agency determines that the dispute by the consumer is frivolous or 14 irrelevant, including by reason of a failure of the consumer to provide 15 sufficient information.

16 (b) Upon making a determination in accordance with (a) of this 17 subsection that a dispute is frivolous or irrelevant, a consumer 18 reporting agency shall notify the consumer within five business days of 19 the determination. The notice shall be made in writing or any other 20 means authorized by the consumer that are available to the agency, but 21 the notice shall include the reasons for the determination and a notice 22 of the consumer's rights under subsection (6) of this section.

23 (4) In conducting a reinvestigation under subsection (1) of this 24 section with respect to disputed information in the file of any 25 consumer, the consumer reporting agency shall review and consider all 26 relevant information submitted by the consumer in the period described 27 in subsection (1) of this section with respect to the disputed 28 information.

29 (5)(a) If, after a reinvestigation under subsection (1) of this 30 section of information disputed by a consumer, the information is found 31 to be inaccurate or cannot be verified, the consumer reporting agency 32 shall promptly delete the information from the consumer's file.

33 (b)(i) If information is deleted from a consumer's file under (a) 34 of this subsection, the information may not be reinserted in the file 35 after the deletion unless the person who furnishes the information 36 verifies that the information is complete and accurate.

37 (ii) If information that has been deleted from a consumer's file 38 under (a) of this subsection is reinserted in the file in accordance 39 with (b)(i) of this subsection, the consumer reporting agency shall 1 notify the consumer of the reinsertion within thirty business days.

2 The notice shall be in writing or any other means authorized by the 3 consumer that are available to the agency.

4 (6) If the reinvestigation does not resolve the dispute or if the 5 consumer reporting agency determines the dispute is frivolous or 6 irrelevant, the consumer may file a brief statement setting forth the 7 nature of the dispute. The consumer reporting agency may limit these 8 statements to not more than one hundred words if it provides the 9 consumer with assistance in writing a clear summary of the dispute.

10 (7) After the deletion of information from a consumer's file under 11 this section or after the filing of a statement of dispute under 12 subsection (6) of this section, the consumer reporting agency shall, at 13 the request of the consumer, furnish notification that the item of 14 information has been deleted or that item of information is disputed.
15 In the case of disputed information, the notification shall include the 16 statement filed under subsection (6) of this section. The notification 17 shall be furnished to any person specifically designated by the 18 consumer, who has, within two years before the deletion or filing of a 19 dispute, received a consumer report concerning the consumer for 20 employment purposes, or who has, within six months of the deletion or 21 the filing of the dispute, received a consumer report concerning the 22 consumer for any other purpose, if these consumer reports contained the 23 deleted or disputed information.

24 (8)(a) Upon completion of the reinvestigation under this section, 25 a consumer reporting agency shall provide notice, in writing or by any 26 other means authorized by the consumer, of the results of a 27 reinvestigation within five business days.

28 (b) The notice required under (a) of this subsection must include:

29 (i) A statement that the reinvestigation is completed;

30 (ii) A consumer report that is based upon the consumer's file as 31 that file is revised as a result of the reinvestigation;

32 (iii) A description of the manner in which the information will 33 appear, if at all, in any subsequent consumer report;

34 (iv) If requested by the consumer, a description of the procedure 35 used to determine the accuracy and completeness of the information 36 shall be provided to the consumer by the agency, including the name, 37 business address, and telephone number of any person contacted in 38 connection with the information;

1 (v) If the reinvestigation does not resolve the dispute, a summary 2 of the consumer's right to file a brief statement as provided in 3 subsection (6) of this section; and

4 (vi) If information is deleted or disputed after reinvestigation, 5 a summary of the consumer's right to request notification to persons 6 who have received a consumer report as provided in subsection (7) of 7 this section.

8 (9) In the case of a consumer reporting agency that compiles and 9 maintains consumer reports on a nationwide basis, the consumer 10 reporting agency must provide to a consumer who has undertaken to 11 dispute the information contained in his or her file a toll-free 12 telephone number that the consumer can use to communicate with the 13 agency. A consumer reporting agency that provides a toll-free number 14 required by this subsection shall also provide adequately trained 15 personnel to answer basic inquiries from consumers using the toll-free 16 number.

17 NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) Except as provided in subsections (2) 18 and (3) of this section, a consumer reporting agency may charge the 19 following fees to the consumer:

20 (a) For making a disclosure under sections 9 and 10 of this act, 21 the consumer reporting agency may charge a fee not exceeding eight 22 dollars. Beginning January 1, 1995, the eight-dollar charge may be 23 adjusted on January 1st of each year based on corresponding changes in 24 the Consumer Price Index with fractional changes rounded to the nearest 25 half dollar.

26 (b) For furnishing a notification, statement, or summary to a 27 person under section 11(7) of this act, the consumer reporting agency
