

SENATE RESOLUTION 1998-8727

By Senators Thibaudeau, Jacobsen, Kline, Kohl, Fraser, Spanel and B. Sheldon

WHEREAS, Hazel Wolf has dedicated a full third of her long life to the preservation and enjoyment of the environment; and

WHEREAS, She has been recognized for her tireless efforts on behalf of the environment, including being named recipient of the 1997 Audubon Medal, and the Chevron Conservation Award; and

WHEREAS, She has endeavored to share her love of the world and its creatures by helping found twenty-one of twenty-six Audubon Society chapters in Washington; and

WHEREAS, She continues to serve as secretary of the Seattle chapter of the Audubon Society; and

WHEREAS, She knows well that our environment belongs to all, and has demonstrated that knowledge by founding the Community Coalition for Environmental Justice; and

WHEREAS, She has been a tireless worker for the rights of the people and the human right to self-determination as evidenced by her service as a volunteer monitor of free elections in Nicaragua; and

WHEREAS, On March 10, 1998, she celebrated her centennial birthday and she is now looking forward to her second hundred years;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate do hereby recognize and honor Hazel Wolf's life, her accomplishments, and her contributions to the countless number of people who have come in contact with her and who have been changed for the better; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Senate immediately transmit a copy of this resolution to Hazel Wolf.

I, Mike O'Connell, Secretary of the Senate, do hereby certify that this is a true and correct copy of Senate Resolution 1998-8727, adopted by the Senate March 11, 1998.

MIKE O'CONNELL
Secretary of the Senate
