26 Sec. 2. RCW 18.170.100 and 2004 c 50 s 2 are each amended to read 27 as follows:

28 (1)(a) to promote and protect the safety of persons and the 29 security of property, the director shall develop and adopt rules
30 establishing a standard course and curriculum for private security 31 guard preassignment and postassignment or on-the-job training and 32 testing requirements. The department must approve all training
33 provided under this section.

34 (b)~~((i))~~ A course of training required under this section may be 35 administered, tested, and certified by any department-certified
36 trainer, but the majority of the classroom instruction must be taught 37 by means of in-person instruction.

1 (2)(a) Except as provided under ~~(b)((i))~~ of this subsection,
2 beginning July 1, 2005, all security guards licensed on or after July 3 1, 2005, must complete at least eight hours of preassignment training
4 administered by a department-certified trainer. Preassignment training 5 must include a minimum of four hours of classroom instruction, and a 6 minimum of four additional hours that may be of classroom training, on-
7 the-job training, or any combination of the two. A 8 department-certified trainer must report the preassignment training to 9 the department. Upon successful completion of training the 10 department-certified trainer must give trainees a certificate of 11 training, which must be accepted as conclusive evidence of completion 12 of preassignment training by any private security company.

13 ~~((i))~~ (b) Any person who was most recently employed full-time as 14 a sworn peace officer not more than five years prior to applying to 15 become licensed as a private security guard may be deemed to satisfy 16 the training required under ~~((b)(i))~~ (a) of this subsection upon 17 passage of the examination typically administered to applicants at the 18 conclusion of the preassignment training required under ~~((b)(i))~~ (a)
19 of this subsection.

20 ~~((iii) The director may establish, by rule, training requirements~~
21 ~~for private security guards.~~

22 ~~(2))~~ (3)(a) Beginning July 1, 2005, all security guards must 23 complete at least eight hours of postassignment or on-the-job
24 training~~((r))~~ as follows:

25 ~~((a))~~ (i) For security guards initially licensed on or after July 26 1, 2005, four hours of postassignment training must be completed within 27 six months of the date an initial private security guard license is 28 issued by the director and the remaining four hours completed within 29 twelve months of the date an initial private security guard license is 30 issued by the department.

31 ~~((b))~~ (ii) For security guards licensed prior to July 1, 2005, at 32 least four hours of postassignment training must be completed by 33 December 31, 2005, and the remaining four hours by July 1, 2006.

34 ~~((e))~~ (b) Postassignment or on-the-job training must be in the 35 ~~((topic areas))~~ course curriculum established by the director and may 36 occur in a classroom setting, in the field, or a combination of the 37 two. A department-certified trainer need not report postassignment or

1 on-the-job training to the department. However, a department-certified 2 trainer must attest in writing that the training occurred.

3 ~~((d))~~ (c) The number of required postassignment training hours
4 required under (a) of this subsection must be increased by one hour on 5 January 1st of every year until January 1, 2012. The number of 6 postassignment training hours required of a security guard is the 7 number required on the date the security guard was initially licensed
8 by the department. These additional hours of postassignment training
9 must be completed within eighteen months after the date a security
10 guard initial license is issued by the department.

11 (d) In addition to the postassignment training required under (a) 12 of this subsection, a private security company must annually provide 13 each licensed security guard in its employ with eight hours of 14 specifically dedicated review or practice of security guard skills
15 taught by department-certified trainers.

16 (e) The director shall require private security companies to 17 maintain records regarding the postassignment training hours completed 18 by each employee, including a record of administering the review or 19 practice training required under (d) of this subsection for each guard 20 in its employ. All such records are subject to inspection by the 21 department for at least three years from the date of training. The 22 training requirements and test results must be recorded and attested to 23 as appropriate by a certified trainer.

24 (3) The director shall consult with ~~((the private security industry~~ 25 ~~and law enforcement))~~ consumers, labor organizations representing 26 private security officers, private security companies, educators, and 27 subject matter experts before adopting or amending rules relating to 28 the training and testing requirements of this section.

29 NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 18.170 RCW
30 to read as follows:

31 (1) The department may assess civil penalties against a private 32 security company in the amount of one hundred dollars for the first 33 violation and two hundred dollars for subsequent violations for the 34 failure to:

35 (a) Maintain an accurate and current record of proof of completion 36 of preassignment training by each private security guard employed by 37 the company;

1 (b) Provide each private security guard with certification of 2 completion of preassignment training;

3 (c) Administer to each private security guard the postassignment
4 training and review or practice of security guard skills according to 5 the schedule required under RCW 18.170.100(3); or

6 (d) Maintain an accurate and current record of proof of completion
7 of the postassignment training and review or practice of security guard
8 skills required under RCW 18.170.100(3).

9 (2) The department may revoke, suspend, or refuse to accept or 10 renew certification of any department-certified trainer for any 11 violation of this chapter, including the violations listed in 12 subsection (1)(a) through (d) of this section.

13 (3) All costs associated with compliance with orders issued under 14 this section are the obligation of the license holder or 15 department-certified trainer. All money collected from the assessment 16 of civil penalties under this section may be used only for the 17 administration of this chapter.
