AN ACT Relating to improving quality, access, and stability of child care through providing collective bargaining for child care center directors and workers; amending RCW 41.56.028, 41.56.030, 41.56.113, 41.04.810, and 43.01.047; adding a new section to chapter 43.215 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 74.08A RCW; adding a new section to chapter 74.12 RCW; and creating new sections.

7 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that, as of 2008, the challenges posed by low wages and lack of training that the legislature identified in enacting the child care career and wage ladder persist, and the availability of quality child care in the state continues to suffer. The legislature intends to address these problems by creating the possibility for a new relationship between child care center directors and workers and the state. Child care center directors and workers are to be given the opportunity to work collectively to improve standards in their profession and to expand opportunities for educational advancement to ensure continuous quality improvement in the delivery of early learning services. Family child care providers in the state have recently been given a similar opportunity, and the results of their efforts have improved standards and quality for that segment of the child care industry.

The legislature intends to create a new type of collective 4 bargaining for these directors and workers whereby they can come 5 together and bargain with the state over matters within the state's 6 7 purview and support for improving the quality of child care for the state's families. Unlike traditional collective bargaining, this new 8 approach will afford these directors and workers the opportunity to 9 10 bargain with the state only over the state's support for child care centers, a matter of common concern to both directors and workers. 11 12 Specific terms and conditions of employment at individual centers, 13 which are the subjects of traditional collective bargaining between employers and their employees, fall outside the limited scope of 14 15 bargaining defined by this act. Accordingly, traditional policy concerns over supervisors and employees being organized into a common 16 17 bargaining unit are inapplicable. Sharing a community of interest in the subjects of bargaining enables directors and workers to work side 18 by side in the same bargaining unit for common goals. 19

All child care center directors and workers will equally be able to maintain full membership in the organization that represents them in their efforts to improve the quality of child care they provide to the state's children. This new bargaining relationship does not intrude in any manner upon those relationships governed by the national labor relations act (29 U.S.C. Sec. 151 et seq). Child care center directors and workers do not forfeit their rights under the national labor relations act by becoming members of an organization that represents them in their dealings with the state. Under the national labor relations act, an organization that represents child care center directors and workers in bargaining with the state under this act is precluded from representing workers seeking to engage in traditional collective bargaining with their employer over specific terms and conditions of employment at individual child care centers.

- 34 Sec. 2. RCW 41.56.028 and 2007 c 278 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:
- 36 (1) In addition to the entities listed in RCW 41.56.020, this 37 chapter applies to the governor with respect to family child care

- providers and to child care center directors and workers. Solely for the purposes of collective bargaining and as expressly limited under subsections (2) and (3) of this section, the governor is the public employer of family child care providers and of child care center directors and workers who, solely for the purposes of collective bargaining, are public employees. The public employer shall be represented for bargaining purposes by the governor or the governor's designee appointed under chapter 41.80 RCW.
 - (2) This chapter governs the collective bargaining relationship between the governor and family child care providers and between the governor and child care center directors and workers, except as follows:

 - (i) A statewide unit for family child care providers; and
 - (ii) The units for child care center directors and workers determined by the commission which shall conform to the unit requested in the application for certification as the bargaining representative if consistent with the terms of this act. In determining the units, the commission shall include in the same unit all child care center directors and workers employed at child care centers located in department of social and health services regions or subregions existing on the effective date of this section, and shall group together regions to minimize the number of units.
 - (b) The exclusive bargaining representative of family child care providers or of child care center directors and workers in the units specified in (a) of this subsection shall be the representative chosen in an election conducted pursuant to RCW 41.56.070, except that:
 - (i) In the initial election conducted under chapter 54, Laws of 2006, or this act, if more than one labor organization is on the ballot and none of the choices receives a majority of the votes cast, a run-off election shall be held; and
 - (ii) To show at least thirty percent representation within a unit to accompany a request for an initial election under this act, the written proof of representation is valid only if collected not more than two years prior to the date the request is filed with the commission.

p. 3 SHB 2449

- (10) If, after the compensation and benefit provisions of an agreement are approved by the legislature, a significant revenue shortfall occurs resulting in reduced appropriations, as declared by proclamation of the governor or by resolution of the legislature, both parties shall immediately enter into collective bargaining for a mutually agreed upon modification of the agreement.

(11) In enacting this section, the legislature intends to provide state action immunity under federal and state antitrust laws for the joint activities of family child care providers and their exclusive bargaining representative and of child care center directors and workers and their exclusive bargaining representatives to the extent such activities are authorized by this chapter.
