

HB 1617 - DIGEST

Finds that the people of Washington state intended through their approval of Initiative Measure No. 728 to provide a stable funding source for the student achievement fund through an allocation of the state property tax. The substitution of funding from the education legacy trust fund breaks faith with the people of the state and should be reversed so that state property tax dollars are allocated to the support of local schools just as local property tax dollars are.