

HB 1812 - DIGEST

Finds that there may be unanticipated cost increases to major state-funded transportation construction and repair projects due to inflation. In order to provide funding to offset these unanticipated cost increases for these projects, it is important to provide a mechanism to share the cost of these shortfalls with affected local governments.