

HB 2696 - DIGEST

Provides that by September 1, 2008, the department of health shall begin operation of a mobile lead testing unit to test children under six years old for elevated levels of lead in their bloodstream and to educate parents and children in lead poisoning prevention at mobile unit testing events.