(SEE ALSO PROPOSED 1ST SUB)

Finds that regulation of the secondary market for points, miles, or other similar credits earned through participation in frequent flier programs is necessary to ensure that consumers in the state of Washington can freely participate in the secondary market.

Declares that it is unlawful for an airline that participates in the secondary market to interfere, restrict, restrain, limit, or control the right of consumers in the state of Washington to also participate in the secondary market.