

HB 3290 - DIGEST

Provides public investments in transportation should support reducing congestion and thereby improve the predictable movement of goods and people throughout Washington state.