EFFECT:

Removes intent language in the underlying bill stating that the Legislature intends to use lottery revenues for early learning, higher education financial aid, entrepreneurial STARS, and innovation zones and research teams programs.

Specifies that the use of the Washington Opportunity Pathways Account is to provide funding for the Student Achievement program.

Requires the Lottery Commission, in collaboration with the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction to plan for and implement a strategy to marketing the lottery as a contributor to Washington's Opportunity Pathways and to report to the Education, Ways & Means and Commerce Committees by September 1, 2010 and December 1, 2010.
