SENATE COMMITTEE ON TRANSPORTATION

Staff: Dory Nicpon (786-7321)

Background: A person operating a vehicle or moving an object or conveyance on a public highway in an illegal or negligent manner is liable for any damage to a public highway, bridge, or elevated structure that results. When the operator of the vehicle is not the owner of the vehicle, object, or conveyance, the owner and operator are jointly and severally liable for any such damage.

The measure of damage determined by the Department of Transportation (DOT) is presumed to be the amount recoverable in any civil action brought under the section.

Summary of Bill: All other state property is added to the list of items for which DOT can seek to recover damages caused by the operation of a vehicle or the movement of an object or conveyance in an illegal or negligent manner on a public highway.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Available.

Committee/Commission/Task Force Created: No.

Effective Date: Ninety days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.

Staff Summary of Public Testimony: PRO: This bill clarifies the items that the Legislature intends to be recoverable in cases where damages to state property are sustained from the illegal or negligent operation of a vehicle. Each year DOT writes off approximately $95,000 worth of damage because current law is unclear as to whether the Legislature intends those damages to be recoverable.

Persons Testifying: PRO: John Milton, DOT.
