Brief History:

Committee Activity: Government Operations & Elections: 2/19/09.

SENATE COMMITTEE ON GOVERNMENT OPERATIONS & ELECTIONS

Staff: Aaron Gutierrez (786-7448)

Background: When a state officer leaves office before the completion of that person's term, another person is appointed to fill that office until the next general election. Statewide general elections in odd-numbered years may only fill the remainder of unexpired terms of specific state offices. The offices are as follows:

- member of the Senate;
- member of the House of Representatives;
- Lieutenant Governor;
- Secretary of State;
- State Treasurer;
- Attorney General;
- Superintendent of Public Instruction; and
- Commissioner of Public Lands.

Summary of Bill: A person may be elected to fill the remainder of an unexpired term for the office of Governor at a general election held in an odd-numbered year.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Not requested.

Committee/Commission/Task Force Created: No.

This analysis was prepared by non-partisan legislative staff for the use of legislative members in their deliberations. This analysis is not a part of the legislation nor does it constitute a statement of legislative intent.

Effective Date: Ninety days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.

Staff Summary of Public Testimony: Pro: The office of the Governor should be treated in the same manner as the other statewide elective offices.

Persons Testifying: Pro: Senator McDermott, prime sponsor.
