Background: When legislation is enacted, it frequently contains references to other statutes. These references may become erroneous due to changes made to the referenced statutes by other legislation enacted during the same legislative session. In addition, statutes sometimes include provisions that are limited in time. These provisions become obsolete with the passage of time.

From time to time, administrative agencies suggest statutory revisions for the purpose of increasing clarity or improving administration.

Summary of Substitute Bill: Technical corrections are made to various provisions related to property and excise taxes. These changes include: (1) correcting drafting errors, structural problems such as RCW strings that are not in numeric order, inaccurate references to terms that have been changed, and inaccurate cross-references; (2) adding or modifying language to clarify statutory provisions; (3) reenacting sections of code to merge multiple amendments; and (4) repealing several obsolete provisions of code.

The technical corrections to clarify statutory provisions include the following: RCW 82.04.050, which defines retail sales, is amended:

- to add a new subsection (14), which excludes sales of retail services for resale from the definition of retail sale (defined as wholesale sales); and
- to provide a new definition of retail sale for sales tax purposes: any sale, lease, or rental for any purpose other than for resale, sublease, or subrent.

The tax sourcing statute, RCW 82.32.730, is amended to give sellers of advertising and promotional direct mail the choice of sourcing in-state sales of advertising and promotional direct mail to the place where the mail is delivered or the location of the printer (currently, these sales must be sourced to the location of the seller).

RCW 84.37.030 is amended to exclude special assessments not listed on the annual property tax statement from the low-income property tax deferral program to ease administration.

A redundant Joint Legislative Audit and Review Committee (JLARC) study of the low-income property tax deferral program is eliminated. (Under chapter 43.136 RCW, JLARC is already required to review the low-income property tax deferral program and report its findings and recommendations to the Citizen Commission for Performance Measurement of Tax Preferences).

RCW 84.52.030 is amended to remove the requirement that county legislative authorities must levy property taxes at their October session (levies do not need to be certified to the county assessor until November 30).
