3 and amending RCW 2.36.072.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

5 Sec. 1. RCW 2.36.072 and 2009 c 330 s 1 are each amended to read
6 as follows:

7 (1) Each court shall establish a means to preliminarily determine
8 by a written or electronic declaration signed under penalty of perjury
9 by the person summoned, the qualifications set forth in RCW 2.36.070 of 10 each person summoned for jury duty prior to their appearance at the 11 court to which they are summoned to serve.

12 (2) An electronic signature may be used in lieu of a written 13 signature.

14 (3) "Electronic signature" means an electric sound, symbol, or 15 process attached to or logically associated with a document and 16 executed or adopted by a person with the intent to sign the document.

17 (4) Upon receipt by the summoning court of a written declaration 18 stating that a declarant does not meet the qualifications set forth in 19 RCW 2.36.070, that declarant shall be excused from appearing in

1 response to the summons. If a person summoned to appear for jury duty 2 fails to sign and return a declaration of his or her qualifications to 3 serve as a juror prior to appearing in response to a summons and is 4 later determined to be unqualified for one of the reasons set forth in 5 RCW 2.36.070, that person shall not be entitled to any compensation as 6 provided in RCW 2.36.150. Information provided to the court for 7 preliminary determination of statutory qualification for jury duty may 8 only be used for the term such person is summoned and may not be used
9 for any other purpose, except that the court, or designee, may report 10 a change of address or nondelivery of summons of persons summoned for 11 jury duty to the county auditor.

12 (5) The court shall notify the office of the secretary of state and 13 the appropriate county election official if a declarant does not meet 14 the qualifications set forth in RCW 2.36.070 (1) through (3) and (5).
