

HB 1947 - DIGEST

Declares an intent to authorize the creation of a street utility by cities to serve the residents and businesses in utility areas through the preservation and maintenance of streets for areas with an identified street utility service. Street utility rates are determined in proportion to the levels of use of different classes of residents and businesses who depend upon access to and use of the street system and burdens placed upon the streets by different classes of residential and business users.