

HB 2107 - DIGEST

Requires the department of early learning, jointly with the early learning private-public partnership and within available funds, to fund evidence-based and research-based home visitation programs for high-risk families to improve parenting skills and awareness about children's early development and its impact on long-term outcomes for children.