

HB 2201 - DIGEST

Removes the requirement that the department of social and health services pass through child support that is less than a certain amount for the purposes of distribution of state support registry funds.