

HB 2310 - DIGEST

Reduces costs of the elections division of the office of the secretary of state.

Changes notice requirements for proposed constitutional amendments.

Removes the requirement that the public printer must print and bind the voters' pamphlet.

Modifies the word requirement for explanatory statements by the attorney general before each general election.