

HB 2798 - DIGEST

Creates the Washington enhanced intelligence act.

Declares it is the policy of Washington state that an individual or group may not be subject to collection, maintenance, or dissemination of information about the individual or group's political or religious beliefs or activities, absent a reasonable suspicion of criminal conduct.